The County of San Bernardino Department of Risk Management is recruiting for a Risk Control Specialist for the Arrowhead Regional Medical Center

This position will develop and implement department safety and loss prevention programs; write policy and procedures related to risk management, loss prevention and environmental compliance; measure performance; monitor department safety program goals and objectives; perform safety inspections; monitor risk potential, recommend corrective action plans and ensure compliance; conduct safety meetings; advise employees and supervisors on accident prevention and safety matters; investigate claims of injury and property damage; review incident reports; inspect accident scenes; photograph and collect evidence; and analyze data to determine cause of accident.

To apply, visit http://www.sbcounty.gov/hr/Emp_Opp_Home.aspx