

Internships Available with the Office of Congressman Brad Sherman

We are looking for hardworking, professional, dedicated, computer literate individuals who are interested in and care to learn more about government and politics.

Internships can begin immediately and will run through the Fall Quarter/Semester with a minimum of 10 hours per week. Academic credit is available.

Interns will have the opportunity to interact with the Congressman and participate in the daily operations of a Congressional Office. Responsibilities include drafting correspondence, coordinating and attending appearances, extensive research, answering phones, and other exciting projects.

Congressman Sherman is the Ranking Democrat of the House Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on International Terrorism, Nonproliferation and Trade. He is also a senior member of the Financial Services Committee.

During his tenure in Congress, Sherman has developed a reputation as a strong advocate for fiscal responsibility, a balanced budget, federal aid to education, the interests of working families, strong environmental standards, protecting Social Security and Medicare, and policies to Expand US expand U.S. exports.
