2. Student Membership with the Society of Financial Service Professionals (SFSP)

Under the leadership of Dr. Michael Phillips, Director of the Center for Financial Planning and Investment, CSUN is recognized as the 31st “University Partner” of the Society of Financial Service Professionals (www.financialpro.org). The SFSP is a national network for professionals working in the financial services industry.

It is highly recommended that you become a student member of the SFSP.

- What can you expect?

According to the SFSP's website – Benefits for Students: We understand that career opportunities are a top priority for students. The FSP's website (www.financialpro.org) offers a Career Center where student members may post resumes anonymously, view available career opportunities, and apply for internship positions. Students receive a special reduced membership rate, which entitles them to all electronic access to the SFSP's Journal, section newsletters, discussion boards, and other members-only benefits.
