

Biosphere

The Weekly Bulletin of Biology

Biology Colloquium (Friday 2 PM in EH 2132)

Dr. Shawna Dark, California State University, Northridge

“Historic Wetlands Mapping of the San Gabriel River”

- Professional Presentations—Graduate student Nikki Osborn (Advisor, Dr. Gray) and Adjunct Professor Ray Sauvajot presented a poster and a talk, respectively at The Sierra Club’s Re-Enchanting the City Wildlife Conference in Griffith Park
- Publication—Associate Professor Bobby Espinoza and colleagues had a paper published in Integrative and Comparative Biology
- Popular-Press Publication—Associate Professor Fritz Hertel and his former graduate student Diego Sustaita (MS 2005) had an article published in RaptorWatch, a newsletter of HawkWatch International
- Grant Supports Student Researchers—Professor Steve Oppenheimer received a $15,000 Learning Centered University grant to provide research experiences for undergraduates during winter, spring, and summer breaks
- CSUN Student Research and Creative Works Symposium—Undergraduates and graduates are invited to present their research (10-min oral presentation or a poster) and vie for cash awards at this annual event, which takes place on 1 December (application deadline 10 November)
- Microbiology Candidate Visits—The next candidate for the Assistant Professor position, Dr. Magalie Guilhabert (UC Davis), will present her research seminar at 11 AM Monday October 23rd in SQ 100