

The following job opportunity is being offered at Lockheed Martin; please see the link below for more information.

Please see attached link for submission information:

<http://www.lockheedmartinjobs.com/searchresults.aspx>

Req ID	168233BR
Industry Job Title	Environ Hlth & Sfty Engr
Standard Job Code/Title	E1172:Environ Hlth & Sfty Engr
Required skills	Demonstrated working knowledge of Current CalOSHA/OSHA Regulations and Federal, State & Local Environmental Regulations. Ability to implement & monitor ESH programs to ensure compliance with regulations, ability to write related policies and procedures, as well as incorporate continuous improvement activities. Strong oral and written communication skills. Demonstrated capabilities in effective negotiations, influencing, advocacy and presentations to all employee and management levels. Strengths in customer service and cooperative teaming. Demonstrated capabilities in providing ESH assistance and guidance in a manufacturing, test, and/or lab environment, including regular floor support activities. Demonstrated capability in managing multiple projects/tasks, effectively prioritizing tasks, communicating project/task status and ensuring timely closure of assignments. Ability and interest in learning new areas of expertise. Must be available to travel. Must have the ability to communicate well with all levels of employees and management.
Desired skills	Demonstrated working knowledge of safety, industrial hygiene and environmental compliance programs. Demonstrated knowledge and application of continuous improvement/lean processes. Ability to obtain a security clearance.
Specific Job Description	Interprets, recommends and complies with Environment, Safety & Health (ESH) regulations and company policies. Participates in ESH program audits, accident investigations and field inspections of site operations, equipment and materials. Provides technical support and overview of safety program compliance for ESH subject areas including: elevated work, confined space entry, construction safety, Lockout/Tag out, lifting and handling, scaffold safety, machine guarding and other industrial safety programs, as well as air quality, water quality, waste management, emergency response. Ability to prepare and review technical documents (e.g. test procedures, building/equipment specifications, work processes & procedures, work hazard evaluations & technical literature, resolve employee safety concerns and perform general record keeping requirements.
Standard Job Description	Interprets, recommends, and complies with environmental, health and safety regulations and/or company policies. Assists in planning for changes in physical facilities to meet new environmental requirements. Finds, evaluates, and prepares contracts for properly licensed hazardous and radioactive waste disposal firms and monitors waste handling. Organizes and equips spill-control teams. Writes and updates environmental and spill-control manuals and procedures. Prepares environmental impact statements and applies for all new permits and renewals. Provides input to federal and state regulators through trade associations and industry groups for the writing and revision of regulations.

Security Clearance	None
Typical Minimums	Bachelors degree from an accredited college in a related discipline, or equivalent experience/combined education, with 2 years of professional experience; or no experience required with a related Masters degree. Considered experienced, but still a learner.
LMCareers Business Unit	ESS4400 SPACE SYSTEMS COMPANY
Business Area	Space Systems Company
Department	9K2S:ES&H-Sunnyvale
Job Class	Environment Safety and Health
Job Category	Experienced Professional
State	California
Relocation Available	Negotiable
Work Schedule	9x80A-9,9,9,9,8 hrs/d in wk1, /9,9,9,9,off in wk2
Req Type	Full-Time
Direct/Indirect	Indirect
Shift	First