

FORTUNE 500 GLOBAL MANUFACTURING COMPANY:

TITLE: EHS Manager

LOCATION: Clyde OH Area - Just outside of Sandusky, and 50 miles from Toledo

SALARY: Negotiable - Based on Experience (will discuss)

EXPERIENCE: Years Experience

DEG Required

RELO Relocation

PURPOSE: Manages plant health, and safety [EHS], environmental performance, issues including training, permits, plans, audits/inspections, regulatory agency communication and corporate reporting. This position will be about 80% Safety and the rest spent on Environmental and Health.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Create a Zero Injury Vision and Culture
- Develop plant EHS program, policies, and procedures
- Manage plant Safety education and training
- Conduct routine plant safety inspections/audits – identify hazards and ensure corrected in a timely manner
- Contractor safety coordination
- Manage / lead EHS personnel including business planning, performance management process, key result areas, and coaching
- Manage EHS issues at the facility including compliance management systems, projects, agency reporting, and training
- Maintain leadership over all plant environmental issues including air, water, and waste
- Ensure effective deployment of all environmental policies and procedures and assist plant operations to ensure compliance with all federal and state environmental requirements
- Develop, improve, and assist with implementation of site-specific management of environmental issues
- Leadership role in Accident and Environmental incident investigations using Root Cause Analysis process
- Monitor/communicate/report environmental metrics and facility performance to plant leadership and federal and state agencies
- Train plant operations personnel on environmental issues and perform internal assessments of environmental compliance systems

REQUIREMENTS:

Knowledge

- Bachelors Degree
- Minimum 5 to 10 years of safety leadership experience working in the industrial processing industry.
- Demonstrated working knowledge of all OSHA 1910 General Industry Standards and OSHA 1026 Construction Standards and NFPA standards.
- Knowledge of ergonomics.

Knowledge of Environmental Compliance regulations / permits and issues as they relate to site

Let me know if you know of anyone that might be a fit or be interested. And if so have them send me their resume.

If this position is NOT of interest to you but you are actively looking I would suggest going onto our website <http://www.judgeinc.com> and searching our open positions. Email me directly with interest in all positions that you might have so we can keep a one-on-one contact and get you in front of the company

Thanks, Michael Gliner

Michael Gliner

Vice President, Judge Inc.

Fax (813) 286-0668

Linked In -

<http://www.linkedin.com/pub/6/713/580>