

BIOSPHERE

The Weekly Bulletin of Biology

Biology Colloquium

Friday Nov. 21, 2 PM in EH2132

Dr. Mo Donnelly

Department of Biological Sciences, Florida International University

“Territoriality, Space Use, Vocalizations, and Toxicity in a Neotropical Poison Frog

- Publications — Dr. Mary-Pat Stein and graduate student Kavitha Thyagarajan have published an article on Rab35 in UCSD-Nature Signaling Gateway Molecule Pages, a free publication by the Nature Publishing Group on molecules involved in cellular signaling
  - Dr. Robert Espinoza and two of his Argentine colleagues have a paper accepted in Herpetologica describing two new species of Liolaemus lizards from northwestern Argentina
  - Dr. Paul Wilson and graduate student Betsy Jordan have had a paper accepted in the journal Botany on Hybrid intermediacy between pollination syndromes in Penstemon and the role of nectar in affecting hummingbird visitation
- Faculty Presentations — Dr. Robert Espinoza gave invited talks at CSU Los Angeles and San Diego State University on his studies of herbivory in South American Lizards
- Faculty Outreach — Dr. Polly Schiffman has been invited by the Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County to be a consultant for their development of a new permanent exhibit about the environmental history of Los Angeles to open in 2012