

BIOSPHERE

The Weekly Bulletin of Biology

Biology Colloquium

Friday Sept. 26, 2 PM in EH2132

Dr. John Kauwe

Department of Psychiatry, Washington University

"Using Cerebrospinal Fluid Protein Levels as Endophenotypes for Genetic Studies of Alzheimer's Disease"

- Faculty Research Grants — Dr. Mike Summers received $151,780 from NIH to further his research on the regulation of akinete development in cyanobacterium Nostoc punctiforme • Dr. Sean Murray has received $340,000 in funding from several sources for the next three years to further his research studying the bacterial cell cycle
- Conference Travels — Dr. Mike Summers' lab attended the American Society for Microbiology General meeting in Boston in early June. Graduate students Joe Ireland, Jenevieve Polin and undergraduates Karen LeGrand, Adrian Paz, and Marisabel Oliveros presented their research • Graduate student Ann Dorsey (adv. Dr. Wilson) presented her research at the Botanical Society of America Meetings in Vancouver, BC in July • Graduate Student Wyndee Haley (adv. Dr. Wilson) presented her research at the Ecological Society of America meeting in Milwaukee • Dr. Mark Steele and his colleagues presented four talks and one poster at the 11th International Coral Reef Symposium in Fort Lauderdale in July