

BIOSPHERE

The Weekly Bulletin of Biology

Darwin Week

CSUN celebrates the 200th birthday of one of the most influential scientists in our history - Charles Robert Darwin (1809- 1882). Visit <http://www.csun.edu/darwin> to find out more details on what we are doing.

Monday

- Evolution Film Festival in Oviatt Library (9-5 in Presentation Rm Lower Level West Wing)
- Dance performance outside Redwood Hall 12:15

Tuesday

- Dance performance outside Redwood Hall 12:15
- Theatrical performance of "Inherit the Wind" scene in

Nordhoff 100 Auditorium at 3:00

- Panel discussion "Evolution, Science, and Religion", Nordhoff 100 at 3:15
- Activities for middle and high school students at USU 2:00-5:15

Wednesday

- Dr. David Lightfoot (Georgetown U.), "Late 19th Century Linguistics: Triumphs and Failures" in Oviatt Library Presentation Room at 10:00 am
- Dr. Elise Trumbull (CSUN), "Language: Its Role in Learning and Development" in Satellite Student Union at 7:00 pm

Thursday (Darwin's Birthday)

- Dance performance outside Redwood Hall 12:15
- Symposium on "Evolution Research at CSUN" in Nordhoff 100 at 3:00
- Dr. David Wake (UC Berkeley), "Darwinian Species Formation: Adaptive Divergence in a Salamander Ring-Species Complex" in Nordhoff 100 at 4:40

Friday

- Dr. Eloy Rodriguez (Cornell U.), "Darwinian Medicine and the Genesis of Organic Natural Medicines" in USU Grand Salon at 2:00
- Dr. Ruth Millikan (U. Connecticut), "Natural Selection and Consciously Reasoned Human Behaviors" in USU Grand Salon at 3:00
- Dr. Kenneth Waters (U. Minnesota) "Chance and Contingency in Evolutionary History" in USU Grand Salon at 4:00