

MISSION

The College of Business and Economics provides high quality education that prepares students from diverse backgrounds for leadership in today's complex, global economy.

- Our graduates are effective communicators and ethical decision makers who are proficient in the theory and practice of business.
- Our faculty members are excellent teachers who maintain academic and professional currency.
- Our college actively partners with business, government, and community organizations to enhance our teaching and research.

