The Central American Studies Program is an interdisciplinary program that emphasizes the transnational character, cultural and ethnic diversity, and diverse histories, perspectives, and experiences of Central American communities. Courses offer a variety of perspectives and approaches, including the study of politics, art, culture, identity, and literature. The Program is community-oriented, emphasizing the importance of learning through work in the community.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a current resume and a letter which designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The resume should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Beatriz Cortez, Program Coordinator
