

THE CENTRAL AMERICAN STUDIES PROGRAM LECTURE SERIES
PROUDLY PRESENTS

DR. EDGAR ESQUIT CHOY

“The Politics of Modernization among the Indigenous Elites in Guatemala during the 20th-Century”

“La política de la modernización entre las elites indígenas en Guatemala en el siglo XX”

Guatemalan Historian and Scholar
Institute of Inter-Ethnic Studies/History Department
University of San Carlos, Guatemala

Thursday, November 29, 2012
Whitsett Room
12:30pm

This event is sponsored by the Central American Studies Program, the Central American Research and Policy Institute (CARPI), the College of Humanities Academic Programming Fund, and the 2012-2013 Distinguished Visiting Speakers Program from the Office of Graduate Studies, Research and International Programs.

California State University
Northridge