

HONDURAS AFTER THE 2009 COUP

Gerardo Torres, FNRP

April 28, 2011: When Sierra Hall 386 : Where
2:00 pm: Time

Gerardo Torres is a representative of the International Commission of the National Front of Popular Resistance (Frente Nacional de Resistencia Popular) of Honduras, where he coordinates solidarity efforts in the United States and Canada. He is the General Secretary of the Political Organization Los Necios/Las Necias (Organización Política Los Necios - OPLN). He is also a member of the Analysis Commission of the FNRP and Ideological Education of the National Front of Youth Movements in Resistance of Honduras and has been active in the non-violent resistance since the first day of the coup and is one of the young leaders of the Resistance. He will be able to give you an eye-witness account of Repression and Hope in Honduras today and the people's dream to "refound the Honduras" based on justice, democracy and equality.

For more information: suyapa.portillo@csun.edu or 818-677-3818

Sponsored by the Central American Studies Program, Central American Research and Policy Institute (CARPI)

California State University
Northridge