

The Central American Studies Lecture Series Presents:

Presenters:

Walter Durán, Consul of El Salvador in Los Angeles

Elana Zilberg, Center for Iberian and Latin American Studies, University of California, San Diego

Alex Sanchez, Executive Director, Homies Unidos

SECURE SPACES

Transformation of the Central American Political, Urban and Cultural Landscape

Transnational experience of law enforcement and foreign policy. Human rights, security industry and social and economic displacement in the region. Current policies on security that are impacting the Central American countries and peoples rights. Issues of privatization of security, urban displacement, gang affiliation and migration.

THURSDAY, APRIL 26, 2012

Linda Joseph Room JR 319

11:00 AM

California State University
Northridge

Sponsored by the Central American Studies Program and the College of Humanities Academic Programing Fund