

Central American Studies

Community Lecture Series/Spring 2012

Los Torogoces de Morazán: a group of peasant folk musicians from El Salvador founded in 1981. They carried their guitars, accordion and drums into battle zones, providing moral support to the guerrilla, as well as entertaining sympathetic communities in liberated zones.

Wednesday,
February 1st.

JR 315

6:00 pm

Conchagua

Todo nuestro Pueblo

Vieja Oligarquía

Los fusilitos

La batalla de San Felipe

A las casas quemadas

Toda Centroamerica

Beso del Sapo

Vamos a Luchar

Los Torogoces de Morazán