

CENTRAL AMERICAN STUDIES
HUMAN RIGHTS SERIES
PRESENTS

FATHER ALEJANDRO SOLALINDE

FOUNDER AND DIRECTOR OF THE SHELTER "HERMANOS EN EL CAMINO"
(BROTHERS ON THE ROAD) AT IXTEPEC, OAXACA
2012 MEXICAN HUMAN RIGHTS AWARDEE

The shelter is located at Ixtepec, one of the poorest areas of México where the incidence of illiteracy, extreme poverty, marginalization and unemployment are the highest in the country. Ixtepec is one of the routes chosen by migrants from Central America.

CARAVAN OF HOPE TO RAISE AWARENESS OF THE PLIGHT OF THE MIGRANTS IN MEXICO

APRIL 29, 2013
11:00 A.M. USU NORTHRIDGE CENTER

Co- sponsored by: The College of Humanities Academic Fund, Religious Studies Department, Chicano Studies Department, The Central American Research and Policy Institute (CARPI), Civil Discourse and Social Change, The Central American United Student Association (CAUSA) and CARECEN

California State University
Northridge