THE CENTER FOR ETHICS AND VALUES

Presents

Bioethics in the 21st Century

Date: Friday, February 20, 2009
Location: Jerome Richfield Hall, Room 319 (English Reading Room)
Speakers and Topics

1PM  Coleen Macnamara, University of California, Riverside
      "Between the Obligatory and Optional: Medical Ethics and Responsibilities"

2PM  Govind Persad, Stanford University
      “Creation, Dependence, and Parental Responsibility”

3PM  Agnieszka Jaworska, University of California, Riverside and Julie Tannenbaum, California State University, Northridge
      “Full Moral Status of the Cognitively Impaired: Defending a Common Sense View”

4PM  Panel Discussion

This talk is co-sponsored by the Distinguished Visiting Speakers Program, Office of Graduate Studies.
Communication services (sign language interpreters, note takers, realtime captionists or assistive listening devices) are available for this event. Contact Donald Lilly (donald.w.lilly@csun.edu) for information. Requests for services must be submitted at least seven (7) working days in advance.

This lecture is free and open to the public. Parking on campus costs $5. For more information, please email julie.tannenbaum@csun.edu