

VITA 2009-20010

Wendy Wen Wang, Ph. D.
Professor, Department of Sociology,
Executive of China Institute
California State University, Northridge
Northridge, California 91330-8318
(818) 677-3591, wen.wang@csun.edu

Part I—DISSERTATION AND POSITIONS

Degrees:

1992 Ph.D. Sociology, University of California, Los Angeles
1988 M.A. Sociology, University of California, Los Angeles
1982 B.A. Philosophy and Political Economy Beijing Normal University
Silver Prize for B.A. Thesis

Core Areas of Research and Teaching:

Demography
Statistics/Research Methodology
Social Psychology
Race/Ethnicity
Social Stratification

Dissertation committee:

Ivan Szelenyi (Chairman), Chairman of Sociology, Yale University
Kazuo Yamaguchi, Professor of National Opinion Research Center (NORC) and Department of Sociology, University of Chicago.
Andrew Comrey, Professor, Psychology, University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA).
Georges Sabagh, Professor, Sociology, University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA).
Kathryn Bernhardt, Professor, History, University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA.)

Dissertation: “Class, Ideology, and Migration Decisions of the Chinese Professional Migration to USA”.

Languages: English, Chinese and some Russian.

Academic Positions:

- 2005 - (Tenure) Professor of Sociology, CSUN
- 2000 - 2004 (Tenure) Associate Professor of Sociology, CSUN
- 1994 - 1999 (Tenure track) Assistant Professor of Sociology, CSUN
- 1993 - 1994 (Tenure Track Assistant Professor of Sociology but resigned from this position), Ivey League private Hartwick College, Albeney, New York
- 1991- 1992 Lecturer at Sociology Department
California State University, Long Beach (CSUL)
- Research Associate, Pacific Rim Center
University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA)
- 1991 Research Assistant, Department of Sociology
University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA)
Research project on attitudes toward peace and war
- 1989 Research Assistant, Department of Sociology
University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA)
Cross-cultural cognitive research in Australia
- 1987 Teaching Assistant for Graduate Students: “Advanced Statistical Analysis.”
University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA)

Part II—RESEARCH

Selected Research Activities:

1. Using ‘Alpha-Common Factor,’ ‘Propensity Measure,’ and ‘Logistic Regression,’ analyzed the longitudinal survey data collected in both the United States and China by myself. The survey instruments and questionnaires measured abstract concepts such as ‘class status,’ ‘ideological orientation,’ ‘social experience,’ and migration decisions of the Chinese professionals.
2. Co-developed an International Migration Study Network aimed at analyzing cultural aspects of migration. Connected scholars in Finland, Germany, USA, and China.
3. Co-organized 4 Formal Sessions at the International Sociological Association World Congress (ISA) in Montreal, and the 36th International Institute of Sociology (IIS) World Congress in Beijing with noted sociologist Peter Kivisto in 2004.

Selected Peer-Reviewed Journal Publications:

1. 2009, Single author, accepted and forthcoming
“Life Time Friendship and Moral Achievements of the Young Students Who Volunteered to Work in Inner Mongolia for 10 Years.”
Asian Academic Journal, Southern California Asian Scholars Association.
2. 2008, Single author, accepted
“I Ching ---The Correspondence Thinking Culture and Its Reverse Power to Economic Development in China”, paper accepted in Jarmo Houtsonon and Ari Antikainen’s (Special Issue) Symbolic Power in a Cultural Contexts, under revisions.
3. 2008, Single author
“Son Preference Culture and Female Children’s Empowerment in China,” pp 146-160.
Symbolic Power in a Cultural Contexts—Uncovering Social Reality, Jarmo Houtsonen and Ari Antikainen (Special Issue), Sense Publishers, Rotterdam, Holland.
4. 2008, Single author
“China Is Going, Should Go, and Will Go Its Own Road”, The Update, Asian American Scholars Association, Vol. 419, No.14, May (On Line Journal).
5. 2006, Lead-article, Single author
“Son Preference and Educational Opportunities of Children in China,”
* Gender Issues (formally ASA Feminist Issues) , Vol. 22, No. 2: 3-30.
6. 2005, Single-author with Blackwell Academic Publishing
“Ideological Orientation and the Chinese Academic Migration —A Theoretical and Longitudinal Analysis.”
* Sociological Inquiry, Vol. 75, No. 2: 216-248.
7. 2004, Single author
“A Study of the Professional Migration Between China and USA,”
Special Issue Published by
Chinese Academy of Social Science (CD Rom available).
8. 2001, Single author
“Can Ideology be a Determinant of International Migration?”
Asian Thoughts and Society--An International Review. Vol. 26, No 77: 148-163.
9. 2001, Co-author with Blackwell Academic Publishing

“The Eight Trigrams of the Chinese I Ching and the Eight Primary Emotions,”
Journal of Social Psychology*, Vol. 4, No. 3: 185-199, with Warren TenHouten.

10. 1999, Single author

“Transvaluation - - Chinese Professional Migration to the USA,”

* International Journal of Contemporary Sociology, Vol. 36, No 1: 81-93.

11. 1999, Single author

“Elementary School--Children’s ‘Second Home’ and the Socialization Process.”

A Special Issue of the 90-Year Anniversary of the Beijing Secondary Experimental Education (in Chinese). Pp 23-25.

12. 1998, Lead-article, Single author

“Illegal Drug Abuse and the Community Camp Strategy to Drug Rehabilitation in China.”

* Journal of Drug Education, Vol. 29, No. 2: 97-114.

Note: The journals with * are the highlighted recommended journals in ASA “Publication Options: An Author’s Guide to Journals” 3rd Edition, Washington D. C.

Refereed Top National Academic Journal Publications:

13. 2007 Single author

“Lovely, Respectfully, and Miserable Liu Pingping—How Former Vice President Liu Shiqi and His Wife Wang Guangmei Educate their Children.”

Significant People Vol. 218, No.4, pp 58-61.

Note: this journal is one of The Highest ranking journals in China and it includes articles of most important and influential individuals in both Contemporary and Historical China. My article was widely reprinted by several major magazines and newspapers in China.

14. 1999 Single author

“Gender Preference and Female Educational Opportunities in China,” Beijing Tian Ze Economic Institute, China(Government Report).

15. 1998 Single author

“Gender Preference and Female Labor Force Participation in China,”

International Sociological Association Congress publications.

16. 1994 Single author

“Migration of Academics from P.R. China to the USA: Implications of Going, Staying, and Returning,” International Sociological Association Congress publications.

17. 1992 “Class, Ideology, and Migration Decisions of the Chinese Professional Migration to the USA,” UCLA Dissertation Monograph.

Selected Academic Awards and Honors:

1. 2009-2010 Three units reassigned time by the College of Social Behavioral Science for the research on Female Entrepreneurs Empowerment
2. 2008 ($5,000)
Summer research stipend from the Dean. The research on female empowerment in China was published.
3. 2007 ($2500)
Summer research stipend from the Dean, The research on China’s Fertility Transition and it was completed.
4. 2006 ($10,000)
Three units reassigned time from Research and Sponsored Office at CSUN, and $5,000 from the Dean. The research was published in “Gender Issues” as the lead article, and this journal is recommended by American Sociological Association.
5. 2003 (One semester sabbatical leave)
Working on gender inequality in China and presented the research paper at 24th International Sociological Association Congress.
6. 2000 ($4,000)
Granted by College of Social and Behavioral Science, for ideology and migration paper, and it was later published by “Sociological Inquiry”, the top 19th sociological journal highlighted by American Sociological Association.
7. 1998 ($2,000)
Granted by California State University, Northridge for “Racism at CSUN,” a two-session, three-department symposium
8. 1996 ($4,000)
Granted by the Research, Scholarship and Creative Activity office at CSUN Working on my ideology and migration paper, and it was later published in “International Journal of Contemporary Sociology”, journal recommended by ASA.
9. 1992 ($6,000)
Granted by the Pacific Rim Research Center, UCLA, for my dissertation research.
10. 1988-1990 ($10,000)
Teaching fellowship from Department of Sociology, UCLA.

11. 1998 My name and research were in 'California Faculty'

Selected Major Congress/Conference Presentations:

20 of the 26 were at International Sociology Association (ISA) (IIS) and American Sociology Association (ASA) congress/conference!

1. 2010 Paper accepted by International Sociological Association Session Culture, Politics and Ethics, "The Changing Pattern of the Gender's Symbolic Meaning In Chinese Family and Society"
Salzburg, Austria, March 12-14. 2010.
2. 2009 Paper presentation at the Asian Faculty Association Annual Meeting at USC
"Why China Should Go, Is Going, and Will Go Its Own Road." April, USC.
3. 2008 Paper Presentation at the International Sociology Association World Congress, (38th ISA), August, Barcelona, Spain "Empowerment of Females in China."
4. 2007 Paper presented at the China Population Conference,
"Fertility Transition Re-Visited", June, Beijing, China.
5. 2006 Paper presented at the China Clean Water Association Meeting,
"Water and Air Pollution and The Negative Impact in China." July, Beijing, China (In Chinese).
6. 2005 International Institute of Sociology (37th IIS) World Congress, Regular Session, July, Stockholm, "Son Preference and Female Education in China."
7. 2004 International Institute of Sociology (36th IIS) World Congress, Regular Session, Beijing, "Professional Migration between China and USA."
8. 2004 American Sociological Association Annual Meeting (ASA), San Francisco, August,
"Historical Materialism and China's Cultural Revolution."
9. 2002 Asian Professional Association Meeting, USC, May, "A Comparative Study of Drug Rehabilitation in China and in the USA."
10. 2000 The International Sociology Association (ISA) Biographical Conference, Regular Session, October, London, "Female Educational Opportunities in China."

11. 2000 Pacific Sociological Association Meeting, San Diego, April, "Students Group Projects and Classroom Teaching."
12. 1999 Pacific Sociology Association Annual Meeting, April, Portland, "The Cultural Perspective of Brain Drain - - A study of Professional Migration From China to the USA."
13. 1998 International Sociology Association Congress (ISA), Regular Sessions, July Montreal, Canada. Co-Organized Two Regular Sessions and Presented two papers: "The Cultural Aspect of Brain Drain - - A study of Chinese Brain Flow."
14. 1998, International Sociology Association Congress (ISA) Regular Sessions, July Montreal, Canada, "The Consequences of Gender Preference in China."
15. 1998 American Sociology Association Annual Conference (ASA), Roundtable Sessions, San Francisco, "Female Education and Employment in China,"
16. 1997 American Sociology Association Annual Conference (ASA) Regular Session, Toronto, Canada, "Illegal Drug Abuse and the Community Camp Strategy in China."
17. 1997. Co-Organized Two Sessions, Three Departments Joint Symposium, California State University, Northridge "A Sociological Analysis of Racism", Departments of Sociology, Psychology and Pan-African Studies, Northridge.
18. 1996 American Sociology Association Annual Conference (ASA), Regular Session, New York, "The Camp' Strategy to Drug Detoxification and Rehabilitation in P.R. China."
19. 1996 American Sociological Association Annual Conference (ASA), Washington DC, "Reconsideration of One-Child Family Policy in P.R. China,"
20. 1995 International Population Conference (IPC) Regular Session, Beijing, China, "One Child family Policy and It's Consequences in China."
21. 1994 13th International Sociology Association Congress (ISA), Regular Session, Bielefeld, Germany, "Migration as a Biographical Process."
22. 1994 Pacific Sociology Association Annual Meeting, San Francisco, "Demographic Characteristics of the Drug Users and the Spreading Drug Use in China."
23. 1993 American Sociology Association Annual Conference (ASA), Regular Session, "Class, Ideology and Migration Decision: Brain Flow from Socialist China to the United States."

24. 1991 American Sociology association Annual Conference (ASA), Roundtable, July, Cincinnati, "Class, Ideology and Migration Decisions."
25. 1991 University of California, Los Angeles Sociology Colloquium Series, Macro Sociology Program Meeting, "Class or Ideology? Brain Drain from China to the USA."
26. 1990 American Sociology Association Annual Conference (ASA), Regular Session, Washington DC, "Ideological Orientation as a Special Causal Factor of Brain Drain: A Case Study of China."

Major Research Experience:

1. 2006—now, Research on U.S. car industry outsourcing in China, trade imbalances between U.S. and China, and female entrepreneurs in China.
2. Research on international migration and Chinese professional migration. Using life history, Propensity, and Logistic regression for longitudinal data analyses.
3. Research on the consequences of gender inequality in China. Analyzed both the 1990 China Census and ethnographic data collected by myself.
4. Research and data collection on illegal drug usage and rehabilitation process in China.
5. Research on fertility transition in China. Analyzed 1988 China one-per-thousand survey data and used "Multi-Level" models.
6. Research on cross-cultural cognitive and emotional development by comparing traditional Chinese philosophy of I Ching and the Primary Emotions classified by Durkheim.
7. Research on a cross-cultural cognitive development project in Australia during summers of 1987, 1989, and 1991. Survey research and experimental research on cognitive comparisons between Australian Aboriginal and White children. My duties included carrying out questionnaire surveys, multiple-task lab tests, converting life history interviews into computers, and analyzing quantitative data.
8. Data analyst in a cross-national survey on people's attitudes toward war and peace. I carried out Multivariate analyses by using SAS program.
9. Research Assistant for Dr. Ralph Turner on psychological impacts of earthquakes. Department of Sociology, University of California, Los Angeles.

Part III --TEACHING

Creative Teaching:

Worked for College of Extended Learning and China Institute since 1998 for the international MBA and MPA training programs and for the scholarly exchange programs between China and CSUN. My duties included but were not limited to:

1. designing classes,
2. lectures and seminars,
3. advising scholars with their theses and research projects,
4. contacting Chinese scholars,
5. co-organizing workshops and meetings,
6. and selecting proposals for Chinese Government grants for our faculty and students and involved in the students exchange activities.

Courses Taught:

Graduate courses:

1. Advanced Statistics
2. Methods in Sociology
3. Survey Research
4. Race Relation and International Migration

Undergraduate courses:

1. Sociological Analysis
2. Culture and Personality
3. Social Psychology
4. Social Statistics/Lab
5. Race Relations
6. Research Methods
7. Field Research
8. Social Stratification
9. Introduction of Sociology
10. Ethnic Diversities

Students Evaluations:

Consistently received high overall evaluations from students and faculty members. Received high evaluations on the difficult course "Social Statistics" from students, the personnel committee, and the President. Students said: "Wang is the best professor in this university," "She is very knowledgeable and intellectually challenging," "She is very knowledgeable, humorous and makes me laugh all the time," "With great humor and drawing skills," "You are a great professor, your style of teaching is unique and fun, and it made me wanting to go to class." The overall evaluations are between 4.2 - 4.8.

Student Advising:

1. Supervised about 1,160 graduate and undergraduate students since coming to CSUN
On Student internships and independent studies. Students were not only involved in different field works but also learned how to conduct literature review, how to collect qualitative data, and how to write a research paper.
2. One-on -one counseling with many students who had personal problems and family conflicts.
3. I paid significant attention to those who applied for graduate schools between 1994 and 2004. I helped them analyzed information on acceptance of graduate schools, suggested the potential field of study according to students' interests and talents and wrote recommendation letters for them.
4. Students took my advice for course selection, graduate check, graduate school application, research paper preparation, graduate thesis preparation, and job search.

PART IV—SERVICE:

Pioneering and Innovative Services:

1. 2004-- : Executive of International Scholarly Exchange Program and Coordinator of China Institute.
2. Summer 2001 -- Summer 2003: Co-developed a special scholarly exchange program between China Gene University and the College of Extended Learning at CSUN. This was an extremely time consuming project. My duties included:
 - (1) Co-designed the courses for MBA certificate program, co-designed courses for MPA certificate program for Chinese visiting officials.
 - (2) Arranged business meetings during the summer vacations, and introduced Vice President Mack Johnson to the officials of Gene University.
 - (3) Went to China and met with Chinese Officials and Scholars during summer vacations; helped them with visa application processes and gave them introductions about exchange programs at CSUN.

- (4) Met with the Dean and the Coordinators of the MPA program of the College of Extended Learning.
 - (5) Introduced the instructors of the MBA program in Business School to the Chinese visitors.
3. Spring 2000 --Spring 2001: I designed a program for Chinese visiting scholars who would study in the Department of Theater, Film, and Television at CSUN.
 4. 2001-2003: I supervised research papers for Chinese visiting officials and scholars who studied at CSUN. It involved a tremendous amount of my time.
 5. 2003: I co-organized a research network with scholars at University of Frankfurt, Germany, Joensuu University, Finland, and Gene University, China, dealing with the issue of international migration flows.
 6. 2000 - As Coordinator of the China Institute at CSUN, my duties included:
 - (1) Co-organized meetings with Chinese visiting scholars.
 - (2) Advised visiting scholars' research projects
 - (3) Presented my research papers at meetings
 - (4) Co-organized scholarly gatherings
 7. Four Formal-Sessions' Co-organizer for International Sociological Association World Congresses and International Institute of Sociology:
 - (1) 1999 ISA Session on Biographical Approaches in Sociology, Montreal Canada (with M. Sabour, Chairman of Sociology, Joensuu University, Finland)
 - (2) 1999 ISA Session Cultural Perspective of International Migration, Montreal, Canada (with M. Sabour, Chairman of Sociology, Joensuu University, Finland)
 - (3) 2004 IIS Session on Race and Ethnicity, Beijing, China (with noted sociologist Peter Kivisto, U.S.)
 - (4) 2004 IIS Session on International Migration, Beijing, China.
- My responsibilities were:
- (1) Drafted the outline of the sessions
 - (2) Selected and reviewed better papers for the sessions.
 - (3) Contacted session members and conference organizers
 - (4) Managed travel related issues and paper presentation requirements
8. In 2000, Co-organized China Institute symposium "Women in the 21st Century."

University, College and Department Service Activities:

1. 2008-2010: Department Personnel Committee Chair: attending university and college personnel meetings and road shows, organizing Department committee meetings, being a chief person in revising (8-10 drafts) the Department personnel policies and taking different suggestions from colleagues several times, conducting class visits and writing evaluation memos, and making recommendations for 9 colleagues for their retention, tenure, and promotion.
2. 2008 College Associate Dean Search Committee member
Reviewing the two applications in the summer vacation under my sick condition, attending the necessary meetings, interviewing the two candidates, and making recommendations to the Dean for the candidate.
3. 2005-2008 Department recruitment committee member for the field of quantitative sociology. Reviewing 70 - 90 application materials each year, selecting top candidates, contacting the candidates by phone and by email, inviting the candidates to campus, visiting their guest lectures, attending lunch meetings, driving some of them back to the airport or hotels, and making further contact and final decisions.
4. 2005-2007 College Personnel Committee member (People elected me as the Chair of the CPC but I gave away this position and just to be the member)
Reviewing 47 - 51 faculty members' PAFs and PIFs each year and making recommendations, attending necessary meetings and discussions and writing recommendation letters.
5. 2003-2005, China Institute 'Spring Festival Banquet' co-organizer, and co-organizing of the Seminar 'Shanghai Life'. These events were on the weekends.
6. 1998-2009 Executive member of the China Institute. Meetings and presentations, China Scholarship selection committee members, and visiting scholars' advisor.
7. Voluntary photographer for the CFA event.
8. 2001, Department personnel committee member
9. 1998-2000, Faculty senator
10. Peer-Coached with Elizabeth Berry, Kris Kouri, Victor Shaw, and Vickie Jenson.
11. Helped several sociology faculty members with the research projects, and helped the visiting scholars at China Institute with the research projects.
12. Co-organized the Racism Symposium: coordinated event with faculty members from the Department of Psychology and the Department of Pan African Studies.

13. University Extended Learning program member.
14. 1998--2000, Co-organized Student Awards. Responsible for nominating outstanding students and inviting guest speakers. I invited Ivan Light from UCLA for the honor students' dinner.
15. 1996—2005, Co-Chaired the Student Job Fairs for sociology students. These were extremely time consuming events without any reassigned time. I worked with the University Career Center and local hiring agencies, and provided potential job hiring opportunities for students. My responsibilities included: contacting social agencies, arranging guest speakers, organizing students' discussions, summarizing and writing final reports.
16. Organized "Students' Professional Conference Presentation Workshop" for the sociology graduate students.
17. As a department Quantitative Field Program coordinator, I participated in making field examinations, graded the examinations, and assisted the Master program in our department.
18. Co-organizer of the Sociology Faculty Retreat Program.
19. Graduate student comp exam committee member on race and ethnicity.

Community level:

1. Co-organizer, "Asian Nights," a fund-raising event for disabled Asian American children.
2. Organizer of "A Drug Dialogue", an exchange of cultural and professional ideas among drug research, educators and professors from China, California State University, Northridge and the Covenant House.
3. Co-Director of a survey on Community Policing in city of Los Angeles, and city of Pasadena.
4. Participated regularly in Southern California Chinese Professional Association member meetings.

Professional Organizations:

1. International Sociological Association (ISA)
2. International Institute of Sociology (IIS)
3. American Sociological Association (ASA)

Professional Service:

1. Reviewer for INTERNATIONAL MIGRATION REVIEW and SOCIOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVES.
2. Research Committee 38 member (RC38) of International Sociology Associations.
3. Research committee member of Population Studies of China.
4. Research member of Clean Water Association of China.