In addition to campuses and the Chancellor's Office, the CSU Risk Management Authority and the CSU Institute transfer surplus funding to CSU's investment account. The CSU Risk Management Authority is a joint powers authority created to provide insurance and risk management services, such as workers' compensation and property insurance programs, for CSU campuses and auxiliary organizations. The CSU Institute is an auxiliary organization whose stated purposes include furthering CSU's educational, research, and public service missions by performing functions such as administering educationally-related programs and assisting with the development of small business enterprises. These organizations are included in Table B.2 in the row labeled Other.
