Blazing Opportunities

>> V-DAY Needs You!

V-DAY is a global movement to stop violence against women and girls. Through V-Day campaigns, local volunteers and college students produce annual benefit performances of “The Vagina Monologues” to raise awareness against violence. V-Day is looking for committed volunteers to join the production crew and cast to make this year’s show extraordinary. All interviews will be held in the Matador Involvement Center (MIC). It is located in the USU inside the Plaza Del Sol Center. Call if you have any questions at 818-677-5111 or 818-274-6011 ask for Ytzel.

>> Learn life’s lessons from the masters!

VITAS Innovative Hospice Care and Project StoryKeeper are teaming up to match talented, sensitive volunteers with elders near the end of life who have a tale to tell. Help capture memoirs— life’s meaningful moments, then design a family treasury, a gift for loved ones to keep. You will use your artistic skills to develop a digital biography on CD/DVD, featuring a hospice patient’s voice/video recalling his or her life stories, combined with music, photos, and captions. Students will receive interview training, earn service learning and community service hours. Connect with people from different generations and cultures, while making a difference in their lives. For more information on this volunteer opportunity, contact: Jessica Hernandez at 818-677-7395 or email jyh5101986@sbcglobal.net

>> Student Extras Casting Program!

CSUN students can now participate in films shot on campus. If you’re a CSUN student and want to be an Extra in an upcoming project, please visit www.csun.edu/licensing.extras.php or email licensing@csun.edu. You will be able to network with film/television production staff, gain industry knowledge and simply have fun!
