Scorching News

>> Clubs & Orgs Reminder!

The 2008 mandatory Clubs and Organizations Recognition Conference will be held on Saturday, September 27, 2008. In order to be recognized by the university as a club or organization, at least one officer must attend this year's recognition conference titled, "Unleash Your Potential." To register, visit our website at www.csun.edu/getinvolved (click on "Clubs & Orgs tab"). For more information, contact the MIC at 818-677-5111.

>> New Club Workshops!

Interested in starting a new club? Attend a New Club Workshop! There will be a New Club Workshop on Wednesday, October 15 at 2 pm. Tuesday, October 28 at 1 pm and Wednesday, November 5 at 11 am. All workshops will be held in the Matador Involvement Center and are approximately one hour. To sign up, come into the MIC or call us at 818-677-5111.

>> Leadership & Life Skills Institute!

The Leadership & Life skills Institute is a comprehensive program held each semester and consists of workshops focusing on individual development, organization, community, and diversity. This program is free to all CSUN students and is a lot of fun, while increasing one's self-esteem and personal effectiveness! Come to the "Choosing Your Focus During Times of Transition" workshop on Wednesday, October 1, from 2-4pm in the Ventura Room. This workshop will focus on learning to effectively navigate the many challenges and opportunities change brings, this skill is essential in today's job market. This session will look at what is needed when things are going well and when they aren't. Then we will use the insights gained to determine how to bring more of what we want and need to our daily lives. For more information, contact the USU at 818-677-2251 or visit www.csun.edu/getinvolved.

Sizzling Events

Come see
Reverend Billy!

Thursday, September 25 — “Reverend Billy”

Through exorcism of cash registers, retail interventions and public rallies, activist Reverend Billy and his gospel choir from the Church of Stop Shopping encourage Americans to abandon the consumer culture that has taken over our society. Billy preaches a broader message of economic justice, fair trade, and an end to the corporatization of America. Come out and experience Reverend Billy seminar at 12:30pm in the Performance Hall. For more information contact the USU at 818-677-2491 or visit: usu.csun.edu/speakyourmind.

Family Feud
9/25-9/26!

Thursday, September 25 — September 26 — Family Feud

Make $1,000 for your group by attending Family Feud this week! Group fundraising is available for Family Feud this Thursday 9/25/08 and Friday 9/26/08 and because the show is taping on weekdays we are offering a much larger fundraising donation than usual. There are two arrivals each day, one at 11:30 AM (finished at 3:00 PM) with a donation of $20per-person and another at 3:30 PM (finished at 7:00 PM) with a donation of $15per-person. If you can get a group of 50 people, that is a $1,000 donation for your group in just a few hours. For more information, call Howard ASAP at 818-295-2700 or email howard@ocatv.com to reserve space for your group. The minimum age is 14 and bus transportation is available. This does require upscale attire.

Friday, October 3 — CSUN 2008 EXPO

Greetings all CSUN Clubs and Organizations! Student Outreach and Recruitment Services invites you to participate in Preview CSUN 2008 EXPO. Preview CSUN is designed to expose prospective high school seniors, community college students and their families to the CSUN campus in order to increase the number of applicants to CSUN. We are extending an invitation to your club/organization to participate in the EXPO component of our program which will also include colleges and student services. To reserve a table your club/ organization must pick up an application in the office of Student Outreach and Recruitment Services in Bayramian Hall Room 190, from 9:30 am -11:30 pm . # Blazing Opportunities

>> V-DAY Needs You!

V-DAY is a global movement to stop violence against women and girls. Through V-Day campaigns, local volunteers and college students produce annual benefit performances of “The Vagina Monologues” to raise awareness against violence. V-Day is looking for committed volunteers to join the production crew and cast to make this year’s show extraordinary. All interviews will be held in the Matador Involvement Center (MIC). It is located in the USU inside the Plaza Del Sol Center. Call if you have any questions at 818-677-5111 or 818-274-6011 ask for Ytzel.

>> Learn life’s lessons from the masters!

VITAS Innovative Hospice Care and Project StoryKeeper are teaming up to match talented, sensitive volunteers with elders near the end of life who have a tale to tell. Help capture memoirs— life’s meaningful moments, then design a family treasury, a gift for loved ones to keep. You will use your artistic skills to develop a digital biography on CD/DVD, featuring a hospice patient’s voice/video recalling his or her life stories, combined with music, photos, and captions. Students will receive interview training, earn service learning and community service hours. Connect with people from different generations and cultures, while making a difference in their lives. For more information on this volunteer opportunity, contact: Jessica Hernandez at 818-677-7395 or email jyh5101986@sbcglobal.net

>> Student Extras Casting Program!

CSUN students can now participate in films shot on campus. If you’re a CSUN student and want to be an Extra in an upcoming project, please visit www.csun.edu/licensing.extras.php or email licensing@csun.edu. You will be able to network with film/television production staff, gain industry knowledge and simply have fun!
