Course Requirements

1. Completion of KIN 302, MEASUREMENT & EVALUATION IN KINESIOLOGY
2. The required lab manual found at "quick copy" in the Matador bookstore.

Course Objectives

1. Identify the various motor learning theoretical concepts and be able to apply them to practical applications in a Kinesiology setting.
2. Be able to measure the basic performance and behavioral parameters of movement control and skill acquisition.
3. Be able to competently use Microsoft's Excel spread sheet program to calculate mean and standard deviation and produce charts and text box documentation.

Student Expectations

1. Students are expected to ask questions when unclear, participate enthusiastically during laboratory, work harmoniously with their research groups, and most importantly, embrace this learning experience with an open mind.
2. Students must do their own work!
3. Attendance—Students are expected to attend ALL class meetings. However, if you miss a class meeting, you are expected to contact another student to find out the important information that you missed and/or the necessary data to complete the current week's lab. Missing a class meeting is NOT an excuse for turning a lab in late.

Evaluation Criteria

1. Attendance/punctuality	30%
2. Lab Assignments	55 %
4. Exam	20 %
Total	100%

Grading Scale:

A	92 - 100	C	72 - 77
A-	90 - 91	C-	70 - 71

FINAL DATE: May 21st, 2007 10:15am – 12:15pm

Course Attendance Policy: Gaining the benefits and doing well are dependent upon attending and actively participating in class. It is recognized that circumstances may require an absence, and thus three (3) absences shall be permitted with no effect on the final grade. However, subsequent absences will affect the final grade as follows:

4 absences = lowers the earned grade by one full letter (i.e., an A becomes a B)
5 absences = lowers the earned grade by two full letter.
6 absences = lowers the earned grade by three full letter.
7 absences (or missing 25% of the class meeting) = students will receive a failing grade.

Circumstances for Absences: Whether it be illness, injury, jury duty, military service, family death, or vacationing in Hawaii, an absence is an absence. If you miss a class, you will be marked absent.
