Foul Shot Productions and Cranium Candy Entertainment Will Join IKED Entertainment to Produce the Feature Horror Film with the Working Title of "Apprehension"

A brief background on this in-development project that is tentatively scheduled to begin shooting in August.

Los Angeles, CA, April 12, 2008 --(PR.com)-- Foul Shot Productions along with Cranium Candy will collaborate with IKED Entertainment to bring a suspenseful horror film that will scare the living daylights out of people. Isaac Diaz and Sherrie Robertson, up and coming writer-producers, will pen the screenplay set in a remote wilderness where three young couples on a 4th of July getaway receive an unexpected surprise. Mr. Diaz, who owns IKED Entertainment and is based out of Los Angeles, will also produce along with Danilo Mancinelli, who in addition to producing, will also star in it. "Apprehension" is tentatively scheduled to begin principal photography in August of 2008 and is set for a 2009 release. According to Mr. Diaz and Mr. Mancinelli, "Apprehension" will provide audiences with a real sense of terror that will possess a unique combination of psychological turns that will bring horror to another level. This film will take viewers on a ride that they won't soon forget. Danilo Mancinelli has enjoyed success in the Domestic Home Video Market with titles like Foul Shot, Blood Sucking Babes from Burbank, and many others. Isaac Diaz, who holds a B.A. in Screenwriting from Cal State Northridge and a Professional Degree in Producing from UCLA, has written several projects and will bring his talents into "Apprehension." Be on the lookout.
