

 Print this article

KDY 93.5's Tha Goodfellas host talent competition showcase

Press Release

Published 06/19/2007 - 5:43 a.m.

(PressMediaWire) Los Angeles - The upcoming June 23-24, 2007 Los Angeles "Uplifting Minds II" entertainment conference's national talent competition showcase will be hosted by radio sponsor KDAY 93.5's number one evening jocks, Tha Goodfellas. Both days of the conference will be held at the Four-Point Sheraton at LAX. The showcase is free and open to the public on Sunday June 24th p.m. Winners will receive a list of prizes, which includes a free music video from Ben Foster Films and air-play on an Hit Center Internet radio station (live365.com/stations/hitcenter).

Tha Goodfellas (Romeo and Dejai) make good their name by building a reputation in the Los Angeles community as down to earth jocks on the first and highest rated Hip-Hop station, 93.5 KDAY (KDAY/KDAI-FM). On the air-waves for eight years now, Romeo and Dejai have been working together since after high school. They were working together at Blockbuster when they met Power 106's morning show hot jock, Big Boy, through a mutual friend. Big Boy informed them the station was holding auditions for an opening slot. Both walked away with the job.

Today they are known to most in the nation and to those in the local L.A. area, as the hottest jocks on the West Coast. With their bubbly personalities, great chemistry and hot interviews, the team is also known for interviewing the likes of Jay-Z, Will Smith, Russell Simmons and Jermaine Dupre.

The guys have even established Tha Goodfellas Scholarship Foundation and have already awarded a scholarship to a selected student. The deserving Cal State/Northridge student received the scholarship to be used for such items as books, materials and transportation to class. Romeo and Dajai also hosted "Tha Drop," a nationwide television show on SiTV and are preparing for their own ringtone.

Winners of the Los Angeles "Uplifting Minds II" talent competition will also receive free legal consultation time from entertainment attorney Richard Jefferson; free vocal coaching from Nadiyah Kareem (Superstar Enter.); free life coaching session with Jamie Ballard, PH.D.; the option of being on The West Coast School Tour (www.theschooltour.net); and a copy of The Business of Music for the Christian and Gospel Industry by Grammy Award winning multi-platinum producer/song writer Alvin Williams.

Judges include syndicated radio personality Lee Bailey (EURWEB.com/Rabercom); Yira Drocie, Esq. (Fagerholm & Jefferson Law Firm); script writer/producer Angela Marie Hutchinson; award winning jazz guitarist Vernon Neilly (boosweet.com); publicist Rhonda Hyman (The Indi P.R. Agency) and concert promoter/talent scout Randy Hankins (theschooltour.net).

For more information on the "Uplifting Minds II" entertainment conference call toll free at (866) 366-2160 or direct at (562) 424-3836 or email FreeAssocInc3@aol.com.