ACHS grad Vance named first team All-American

Eric Vance, a junior on the Cal State Northridge men's volleyball squad and a graduate of Camarillo High, has been named to the 2008 AVCA Division I-II Men's Volleyball All-America Team.

Vance, an outside hitter, is the first Cal State Northridge player to make the national first team since 2003.

He led the Matadors in kills (459), kills per game (4.5) and service aces (52) this season.

Vance was also third in digs (181) and tied for third in blocks (58). He finished the regular season among the top 10 players in the nation in kills, points and aces.
