

COLLEGES

Waves lose WCC title series

Daily News

5/25/8

The Pepperdine baseball team lost the West Coast Conference championship series Saturday, losing twice to host San Diego, 10-1 and 12-4.

Both games were played Saturday because the opener was rained out Friday.

Denny Duron drove in three runs in the second game for Pepperdine (36-19).

■ UCLA 7, Cal 0: Brandon Crawford had three hits and three RBIs for the Bruins (31-24, 13-10 Pac-10) in the win over the host Golden Bears (32-19-2, 11-12).

■ UC Davis 7, CSUN 2: TS Reed and Jason Dabb each drove in a run for the Matadors (23-32, 7-16 Big West) in their home loss to the Aggies (34-21, 13-10).

■ Washington St. 4, USC 2: Nick Buss and Hector

Robago each drove in a run for the Trojans (27-28, 10-13 Pac-10) in the loss to the host Cougars (30-25, 8-15).

Tennis

■ NCAA Championships:

Pepperdine's Andre Begemann advanced to the men's singles semifinals, USC's Robert Farah and Kaes Van't Hof advanced to the men's doubles semifinals and UCLA's Tracey Lin and Riza Zalameda advanced to the women's doubles semifinals at the NCAA Championships in Tulsa, Okla.

Pepperdine's Bassam Beidas lost in the men's singles quarterfinals, and Zalameda and USC's Amanda Fink were eliminated in the women's singles quarterfinals. USC's Fink and Gabriela Niculescu were eliminated in the women's doubles quarterfinals.