Below is the official slate of short films for the 2008 HollyShorts Film Festival:

HollyShorts Opening Night Celebration Official Selections (Not in Competition)

Hole in the Paper Sky
- Run time: 33 min. | USA |
- Directed by Bill Puple. Stars Jessica Biel ("I Now Pronounce You Chuck and Larry"), Gary Marshall ("The Other Sister")
- Drama. Howard Ferp is a brilliant, misanthropic mathematics doctoral candidate. Just as he is about to complete his thesis and win the city-wide chess tournament, his carefully calculated life is turned upside down when he learns that his work study position has been eliminated. Forced to start a new job in the psychology department, Howard encounters two kindred spirits, his supervisor Karen and a doomed laboratory dog. Howard risks everything he thought important to save the animal and, in doing so, discovers his humanity.

Nosebleed
- Run time: 9 min. | USA |
- Directed by Jeff Vespa. Stars David Arquette ("Scream")
- A man tries to get rid of a nosebleed with disastrous effects. Jeff Vespa is an artist, celebrity photographer and Co-founder of the digital photographic agency WireImage. He is also responsible for the creation of the WireImage Portrait Studio that has become an integral part of the independent film festivals worldwide. Previously Vespa produced "Rituals" a film starring Regina King and Isaiah Washington that screened at the Toronto International Film Festival and "The Cage" starring Michelle Trachtenberg.

The Outlaw Emmett Deemus
- Run time: 8 min. | USA |
- Directed by Larry Hankin ("Friends," "Seinfeld")
- Motorcycle Comedy. 'Don Quixote' on a motorcycle. A retired elderly gentleman (Emmett Deemus) wants to live the life of an outlaw biker. He's just bought a funky old '57 BMW motorcycle with a sidecar, 'and jumped into the wind to protect road pilgrims, fight the man, and make some news'. After picking up a lady who's car has run out of gas on a deserted country road, he tries to impress her with his 'outlaw creds' on the way to a gas station. As if calling his bluff, they're attacked by a gang of Real Outlaw Bikers - and, with the help of The Lady, The Old Guy wins, probably.

Red Princess Blues Animated: The Book of Violence
- Run time: 7 min. | USA |
- Directed by Alex Ferrari, voice by Paula Garces ("Harold & Kumar Escape from Guantanamo Bay")
- Animation. Red Princess Blues Animated: The Book of Violence is an animated short film prequel to Alex Ferrari's upcoming feature film Red Princess Blues. In this tale we meet a 12 year old little girl who finds herself in a strange country looking for her father. She is then taken in by a "unique" looking man who goes by Nino. She soon discovers the "Book of Violence" and slowly begins her journey that one day will lead to vengeance.

Verboten
- Run time: 14 min. | USA |
- Directed by Martin Keegan
