

The Acorn

Serving in Uniform

Army Cadet Jason A. Henke is one of 267 cadets who attended the 2008 George C. Marshall Foundation Awards Seminar at Virginia Military Institute in Lexington, Va.

Henke received the George C. Marshall ROTC (Reserve Officer Training Corps) Award at the seminar.

The award is named for Gen. Marshall, who served in World War II. The award is presented annually to the most outstanding senior Army ROTC cadets in military science studies and leadership values in each battalion at host universities or colleges.

Henke is a student at Cal State Northridge and a 1999 graduate of Newbury Park High School.

He is the son of John Henke of Newbury Park and Gail Kopp of Thousand Oaks.
