

California State University Northridge

Did
You Know...

Cal State Northridge is one of only 183 colleges and universities across the United States selected to receive original photographs by acclaimed American artist Andy Warhol. The gift of approximately 155 original Polaroid photos and gelatin silver prints, valued at $124,900, was made by the Andy Warhol Photographic Legacy Program in honor of the 20th anniversary of the Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts.

For the second year in a row, Cal State Northridge's Model United Nations team took top honors—the equivalent of first place—at the Model United Nations conference held recently in New York City. Competing against nearly 300 universities primarily from the United States, the CSUN team won the “Outstanding Delegation” honor for overall performance. Northridge also took “Outstanding Position Papers” in recognition of superior pre-conference preparation.

Cal State Northridge leads the CSU system in the number of graduates admitted after law school to the California State Bar, according to the bar's demographic analysis of its members. CSUN also ranks ninth among the 25 undergraduate schools with the largest number of graduates who have passed the general bar examination.

The winners of Cal State Northridge's 2008 Distinguished Alumni awards include actress and author Teri Garr, nationally syndicated “Handel on the Law” radio host Bill Handel, and Adriana Ocampo Uria, an executive with NASA's Science Mission Program. The awards pay tribute to those whose achievements place them at the pinnacle of their professions.

April 2008
Vol. VII · No. 10

Published by the Office of Public Relations and Strategic Communications

(818) 677-2130