

The Queer Studies Program presents

PERSPECTIVES IN QUEER STUDIES

A course where you can explore various questions like:

- What is Queer Studies all about?
- What is the difference between gender, sex and sexuality?
- How do gender and sexuality intersect with race and class?
- What does it mean to question norms of gender & sexuality?
- What are the implications of Prop 8 for various communities?

Enroll in QS 301 and learn more about these important matters.

This course introduces students to the current theories and histories in Queer Studies, including closely related fields such as transgender studies.

The course explores the scope of Queer Studies. It is a place where students learn about scholarly, community-based and activist resources, as well as about the varied interdisciplinary, methodological, and theoretical paradigms in the field.

Sign up for Spring, 2009!

Course #: 17575

Time: Tues-Thurs, 12:30 – 1:45 p.m.

Place: BH 313

Important Note:

QS 301 fulfills GE (Comparative Cultural Studies) and the Intensive Writing requirement

email: sheena.malhotra@csun.edu for more information
For more information on the minor, please go to: www.csun.edu/qs