Sensory Friendly Performances

SATURDAY • JULY 8 • 2 PM
Into the Woods Jr.

Slight adjustments to the production will include reduction of jarring sounds or harsh light effects. The house lights will remain on, and audience members can feel free to move around during the show as necessary. The doors to the lobby will remain open for those who need to take a break during the performance.

After the show, autographs and photo opportunities with the cast members in costume will be available right outside the theatre. Audience members may decide to bring a lunch and picnic on the shaded lawn adjacent to the theatre.
