Notes:

Films and productions and similar presentations having a controversial appeal but used exclusively for academic purposes in a classroom setting are not governed by the following policy (California Penal Code, Section 311.8, chapter 7.5):

Use of campus facilities may not be denied student/employee groups, clubs and organizations desiring the use of said facilities for the presentation of productions, films, and the like, simply by reason of a controversial content or appeal to prurient interests. However, such activities, as all other activities by student/employee clubs and organizations, must be regulated, monitored and/or supervised by the President's designee. With respect to the aforementioned productions, films, and the like, the following recommendations shall govern:

1. Time, place, and manner of presentment shall be determined or approved by the president's designee as identified herein;
2. Advertising of the event shall be limited to on-campus publications, bulletin boards and flyers distributed only on campus;
3. Information describing, generally, content or nature of the presentation shall be prominently posted at or near the entrance to the area in which the event is being held;
4. Only members of the campus community and bona fide guests of such members may be admitted;
5. The authorization or permit for such presentations may not be granted with such frequency as to constitute competition with similar presentations in communities in close proximity to the campus;
6. All films shown on campus must have been made available for distribution from a licensed and authorized film distributor; and

Plans to make the event accessible to persons with disabilities should be Included in the application for permit.

Use of campus facilities may not be denied a speaker* on the basis of his/her expected presentation. It is Trustee and University policy that the campus endeavor to present a balanced program of speakers during the year and that policy must be followed. Proper forms need to be executed each time a club or organization presents, publicly, a speaker. Such records are needed to apprise university officials of any potential problems involving necessary protocol and/or security which might arise.

* Speakers invited for a presentation in connection with the academic program in a classroom setting are exempt.
