Qualifications
The David Nazarian College of Business and Economics is accredited by AACSB International and expects all instructional faculty to meet and maintain current AACSB standards of faculty qualification. These qualifications may be met by a Ph.D. in Management or a related field (recently awarded or accompanied by a record of recent, high-quality, peer-reviewed scholarly publications), doctoral candidacy in Management or a related field (ABD status achieved within the most recent three years), a master's degree in Management or a related field accompanied by professional experience of a suitable length and level of responsibility, or a suitable combination of the degree, scholarship, and professional experience cited above. Evaluations of candidates will be based upon their academic background and scholarship, professional experience, teaching experience, and potential to publish in the Management profession (e.g., academic or trade journals). All part-time faculty are expected to actively participate in the academic life of the department and college. Candidates must demonstrate ability and commitment to teach and mentor a diverse student population.

Current Salary Range
Salary is dependent upon qualifications

Application Process: Applicants should forward a current resume and a letter which designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The resume should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to: Dr. David W. Miller, Acting Chair
