INTERESTED IN A 1-YEAR CREDENTIAL PROGRAM?

The Accelerated Collaborative Teacher (ACT) Preparation Program may be for YOU!

ACT is offered by California State University, Northridge (CSUN) in partnership with the Los Angeles Unified School District and other collaborating districts.

ACT candidates obtain a credential in one year through full-time study. ACT is available to candidates interested in becoming teachers in elementary, secondary, or special education (mild/moderate disabilities).

Eligibility Requirements for ACT Participants
- Committed to serving students in urban schools
- Available for full-time study (fieldwork during the day and late afternoon/evening classes)
- A strong academic record
- Meet admission requirements for CSUN credential

Why join the ACT Preparation Program?
- Complete a credential program in two semesters with enrollment in courses guaranteed
- Learn with a cohort of talented and highly capable credential candidates
- Receive initial and ongoing support from university faculty and district personnel
- Work alongside effective cooperating/mentor teachers
- Gain expertise in serving diverse learners

Can I afford a 1-year full-time program?
- Tuition costs significantly lower than many other institutions
- You may be eligible for forgiveness loans, scholarships and financial aid

The ACT Program begins in August
