

NOV 19 2016

CALIFORNIA
STATE UNIVERSITY
NORTHRIDGE

Office of
Equity & Diversity

Announcement of
Anticipated Part-Time Faculty Openings

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 100: Introduction to Black Studies and Culture	1. M.A. Degree required but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies, cultural studies or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter which designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Approved Raji Chhabra Diversity Office

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 100 (OL): Introduction to Black	1. M.A. Degree required but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies, Cultural Studies or related field. Demonstrated experience
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization	Qualifications	Current Salary Range
AFRS 113: Approaches to University Writing	1. M.A. Degree required but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies writing projects, or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a current CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter which designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Announcement of Anticipated Part-Time Faculty Openings

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 114: Approaches to University Writing NOTE: (Second semester sequence of First Year STRETCH Composition)	1. M.A. Degree required but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies writing projects, or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter which designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 115: Approaches to University Writing	1. M.A. Degree required but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies writing projects, or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter which designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 151: Freshman Speech Communication	1. M.A. Degree required but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies, Speech Communication or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Announcement of Anticipated Part-Time Faculty Openings

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

Table with 3 columns: Courses or Specialization, Qualifications, and Current Salary Range. Row 1: AFRS 161: American Political Institutions-A Black Perspective, 1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required. Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: http://www.csun.edu/.

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 161(OL): American Political Institutions-A Black Perspective	1. M.A. Degree required but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies, Political Science or related field and/or political experience.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Announcement of Anticipated Part-Time Faculty Openings

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

Table with 3 columns: Courses or Specialization, Qualifications, Current Salary Range. Row 1: AFRS 165: Introduction to Pan Africanism, 1. M.A. Degree required but Doctorate preferred... Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual.

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 168: Introduction to the African Diaspora	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana or Black Diaspora Studies.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Announcement of Anticipated Part-Time Faculty Openings

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 171: Classical African Civilization	1. M.A. Degree required but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Announcement of Anticipated Part-Time Faculty Openings

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 201: Economics of the African American Community I	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies and training in business economics or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 204: Race and Critical Thinking	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies, critical thinking or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Announcement of Anticipated Part-Time Faculty Openings

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 220: Psychological Environment of the African American	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies and training or experience in analyzing psychological
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Announcement of Anticipated Part-Time Faculty Openings

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 221: Social Environment of the African American	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies and training or experience in analyzing sociological processes.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
1811 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 226: Traditional African Cultures	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair,
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Announcement of Anticipated Part-Time Faculty Openings

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 245: African American Literature Since 1930	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies, Literature related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 246: Introduction to African American Drama	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies and Theater or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Announcement of Anticipated Part-Time Faculty Openings

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization	Qualifications	Current Salary Range
AFRS 252: Popular Culture and the Black World	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies, Cultural Studies or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Announcement of Anticipated Part-Time Faculty Openings

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

Courses or Specialization	Qualifications	Current Salary Range
AFRS 271: African American History to 1865	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies, History or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Announcement of Anticipated Part-Time Faculty Openings

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 272: African American History since 1865	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies, History or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Announcement of Anticipated Part-Time Faculty Openings

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 300: Contemporary Issues in the African American Community	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descended or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization	Qualifications	Current Salary Range
AFRS 300OL: Contemporary Issues in the African American Community	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies. Demonstrated experience teaching in an on-line format.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Announcement of Anticipated Part-Time Faculty Openings

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization	Qualifications	Current Salary Range
AFRS 301: Economics of the African American Community II	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies and training in business economics or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization	Qualifications	Current Salary Range
AFRS 311: Black Psychology	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies and Psychology or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.