

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 320: African American Personality Development	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies, psychological analysis or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

Courses or Specialization	Qualifications	Current Salary Range
AFRS 322: African American Family	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies and Sociology or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

Courses or Specialization	Qualifications	Current Salary Range
AFRS 324: The Black Woman in Contemporary Times	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies and Women's Studies or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

Courses or Specialization	Qualifications	Current Salary Range
AFRS 325 The Black Man in Contemporary Times	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descended or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies or related field and experience working with Black males.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 337: Black Images on the Silver Screen	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies or Film Studies.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a current resume and a letter which designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 344: Literature of the Caribbean and African Experience	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies and Comparative Literature of African peoples, or related
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

Courses or Specialization	Qualifications	Current Salary Range
AFRS 345: African American Autobiography	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies, Literature or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a current resume and a letter which designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The resume should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization	Qualifications	Current Salary Range
AFRS 346: Contemporary Black Female Writers	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies, Comparative Literature or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Announcement of Anticipated Part-Time Faculty Openings

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 355: Black World News Practicum	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies, and training or experience in Print Journalism or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 361: African American Politics	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies, Political Science or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization	Qualifications	Current Salary Range
AFRS 367: African American Social Movements	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies, History, Social Movements or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Announcement of Anticipated Part-Time Faculty Openings

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

Courses or Specialization	Qualifications	Current Salary Range
AFRS 368: Politics of Hip-Hop	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies and popular culture or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Announcement of Anticipated Part-Time Faculty Openings

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 391: Psychological Foundation of Education (Elementary)	1. M.A. Degree required but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies and Elementary Education or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Announcement of Anticipated Part-Time Faculty Openings

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization	Qualifications	Current Salary Range
AFRS 392: Sociological Foundation of Education (Elementary)	1. M.A. Degree required but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies and Elementary Education or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Announcement of Anticipated Part-Time Faculty Openings

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization	Qualifications	Current Salary Range
AFRS 392C: Fieldwork in the African American Community	1. M.A. Degree required but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies, Ethnographic Studies, or training and experience conducting
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Announcement of Anticipated Part-Time Faculty Openings

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

Courses or Specialization	Qualifications	Current Salary Range
AFRS 398: Research Methods and Paradigms in Africana Studies	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descended or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies, quantitative and qualitative research methods.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization	Qualifications	Current Salary Range
AFRS 417: Equity and diversity in Schools	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies, Education, equity and diversity.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Announcement of Anticipated Part-Time Faculty Openings

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 417OL: Equity and diversity in Schools	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies, Education, equity and diversity. Demonstrated experience
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Announcement of Anticipated Part-Time Faculty Openings

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

Courses or Specialization	Qualifications	Current Salary Range
AFRS 420: The Black Child	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies and social development or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a current CV (curriculum vitae) and a letter which designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

AFRS 421: Strategies for Black Child Development	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies and social development or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.

Department: Africana Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Spring 2017

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Courses or Specialization

Qualifications

Current Salary Range

Courses or Specialization	Qualifications	Current Salary Range
AFRS 451: Mass Communication in the African American Community	1. M.A. Degree required, but Doctorate preferred. Substantive course work focusing on the African descendent or African American experience is required.	Fractional Amount of Base Salary ($4596.00-$5769.00) Paid in Six Monthly Installments.
	2. College level teaching experience is required.
	3. Demonstrated knowledge or training in Africana Studies and Communication or related field.
	4. Demonstrated commitment to working with a diverse student population.

Application Process: Applicants should forward a CV (curriculum vitae) that designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching and, whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The CV should include educational background, prior teaching experience, evidence of scholarship, and/or related professional experience.

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Theresa White, Chair
Department of Africana Studies
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff St. Northridge CA 91330-8315

Application Deadline: December 5th, 2016

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at <http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clery-report.pdf>. Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: <http://www.csun.edu/>.