CERT Training is designed to prepare you to protect and help yourself, family, and neighbors in the event of a disaster. This training will teach you basic skills to assist your community in emergency situations where first responders become overwhelmed.

Register Today
www.csun.edu/emergency/cert

To enroll in CERT Level 1 Training
Instructed by the Los Angeles Fire Department

You will Acquire Critical Skills and Techniques
- Fire Suppression
- Light Search and Rescue
- Basic First Aid
- Medical Triage
- Disaster Psychology

Questions or Concerns?
Please call or email
Jenny Novak
Emergency Preparedness Manager
(818) 677–5973
Jenny.Novak@csun.edu

- Who -
Los Angeles County Residents (ages 18 and older)

- What -
Seven Week CERT Disaster Preparedness Course (17 1/2 hours total)

- When -
Wednesdays Only
Mach 8, 15, 29
April 5, 12, 19, 26
@ 4pm—6:30pm

- Where -
Oviatt Library
Ferman Presentation Room #81

Doesn’t work for your schedule? Go to EventBrite.com and search “LAFD CERT” for weekend & evening classes in the community.