

Eric C. Bossuk

Eric Bossuk, is Chief Executive Officer and Chairman B&B Premier Insurance Solutions. B&B Premier Insurance Solutions is a full service independent insurance agency located in Agoura Hills, California.

Upon graduating from California State University in Northridge, Eric went to work at the accounting firm of Arthur Young & Co earning his CPA designation in 1982. After leaving Arthur Young & Co, Eric began working with Tri County Insurance Calabasas. Starting as a Salesperson he quickly added administration duties as well. In 1990 he became Chief Financial Officer and in 2001 was promoted to CEO and president of the firm. The firm currently employs 50 people.

Eric has been involved in different industry related functions. He served as President of the IBA of San Fernando Valley in 1994. He has also chaired the Personal Lines Committee for IBA West, was a representative on the Finance Committee of IBA West, and currently is a member of the Strategic Planning Council for IBA West.

Eric also contributes his time to local charities and organizations in the community where he resides. He was treasurer of the West Hills Pony Baseball League and has coached and managed teams in baseball, basketball and soccer. His firm is involved in many community events including an annual charity golf tournament which benefits Coach for Kids a Cedars Sinai Charity.

Eric is an avid golfer, poker player and enjoys reading novels. He and his wife Beth have two children and three grandchildren and reside in West Hills, California.