The David Nazarian College of Business and Economics is accredited by AACSB International and expects all instructional faculty to meet and maintain current AACSB standards of faculty qualification. These qualifications may be met by a master’s degree in Finance, Business, Economics, or related field accompanied by professional experience of a suitable length and level of responsibility, doctoral candidacy in Finance or a related field (ABD status achieved within the most recent three years), an earned doctorate in Finance, Business, Economics, or related field (recently awarded or accompanied by a record of recent, high-quality, peer-reviewed scholarly publications), or a suitable combination of the professional experience, degrees, scholarship, and professional experience cited above. Evaluations of candidates will be based upon their academic background and scholarship, professional experience, teaching experience, and potential to publish in the Finance profession (e.g., academic or trade journals).

All part-time faculty are expected to participate actively in the academic life of the department and college. Candidates must demonstrate ability and commitment to teaching a diverse student population.
