Media Advisory

University Student Union Features Live Music at "Noontime Concert" and "Craft Corner" Every Thursday

WHAT: The highly popular events "Craft Corner" and "Noontime Concerts" are back every Thursday starting January 28. Let your creativity flow by getting crafty at the "Craft Corner" and enjoy the sweet sounds of various artists and music genres at this semester's "Noontime Concert" series.

WHO: Elizabeth Hess, Student Events Assistant for Music, is responsible for coordinating the "Noontime Concert".
Lea Morgan, Student Events Assistant for Arts, is responsible for coordinating "Craft Corner".

WHEN: Every Thursday, Starting Feb. 4
- 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. (Craft Corner)
- Noon to 1 p.m. (Noontime Concert)

WHERE: Plaza del Sol at the USU

WHY: Provide CSUN students an opportunity to enjoy live music performances and create their own art with fun crafting activities.

BACKGROUND: Bring your friends for a different activity every week during "Craft Corner" and enjoy live music by local artists — from rock to pop and classical to hip hop. Free snacks will also be served on a first come, first served basis.
