OFFICE OF ACADEMIC ASSESSMENT AND PROGRAM REVIEW

Spring 2014: April

You are Invited

The 2013-14 Assessment Retreat is scheduled for Friday, May 9\textsuperscript{th} from 10:00a.m. – 12:30p.m. in the Whitsett Room, Sierra Hall 451. Watch for details. Let us know what you would like to hear about at the retreat. Email Bonnie Paller or Anu Thakur.

Academic Assessment Liaison Committee Meetings

The calendar for Fall 2014 meetings of the Academic Assessment Liaison Committee is available on the Assessment website. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Assessment Resource – Motivating Faculty
Do you need to encourage your faculty to gather evidence of student learning? VISCOM has created an introductory video for the Office of Academic Assessment to serve exactly this purpose. Please feel free to share it with all faculty to help them understand the reasons we look for evidence of student learning. It can be watched here or on the Assessment website.

Program Review Updates

Congratulations to following programs that have completed their review in the 2013-2014 academic year: Child and Adolescent Development, Jewish Studies, Modern and Classical Languages and Literatures, Physics and Astronomy, and Political Science. The departments of Anthropology, Deaf Studies, Recreation and Tourism Management, and Religious Studies are also commended for nearing completion of their review process. Visit the Program Review website for updates and salient information.
