FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“Murder Mystery” is Back with a Thrilling Night of Crime Solving at the University Student Union

Northridge — The University Student Union (USU) invites all CSUN students to experience the fun, thrills and chills of “Murder Mystery” in the Northridge Center at the USU. On Friday, Oct. 27 at 6 p.m., this popular event returns just in time to amp up your Halloween season. Be a part of this exciting interactive evening of compelling crime and delicious food. Tickets are only $5 for students with a valid CSUN I.D!

“Murder Mystery is a beloved event that provides unique and affordable entertainment for students and let’s them immerse themselves in a very intriguing game,” said USU Student Events Assistant and Event Lead Kanwal Azeem. “Everyone in the audience will find themselves in the middle of a puzzling crime scene and they all get to figure out who the culprit is and enjoy a great dinner, too.”

Make plans now to join the fun and you will be presented with a staged ongoing murder investigation and have the task of solving the crime to find out who-done-it. You and your friends will be given clues to follow throughout the evening while considering the many twists and turns of who committed the crime. The “murderer” could be anyone at the dinner, maybe even your date!
