

Ty von Hoetendorff ARM, CRIS
Vice President
Construction Services Group
Alliant Insurance Services, Inc.

Ty is a 30-year insurance industry veteran and is recognized for his vast knowledge and unparalleled expertise in construction liability exposures. Ty provides focused claim advocacy for Alliant clientele in the areas of General Liability, Auto, Construction Defect, Professional Liability, Employment Practices, Pollution, Marine, Contractor's Equipment, Property & Builder's Risk coverages.

Prior to joining Alliant Insurance Services, Ty served as Vice President for Aon Risk Services of Los Angeles for 9 years. There, Ty provided claims consulting and advocacy services to a broad range of very large construction clients. Ty began his career as a National Accounts adjuster in 1986 at Aetna Casualty and Surety where he handled various litigated commercial matters in State and Federal Courts. He also spent several years adjusting complex, catastrophic losses with the Travelers and Zurich as a Senior Technical Claims Analyst.

Ty received his undergraduate degree from the California State University, Northridge. Ty is a frequent speaker on various panels that address construction industry related insurance issues. Ty holds a California State Property and Casualty Broker's License, as well as, the ARM (Associate in Risk Management) and CRIS (Construction Risk Insurance Specialist) designations.

Ty's technical expertise includes vendor oversight management, large loss resolution strategies, litigation management, claim reviews, claim audits and coverage analysis. These skills have demonstrated a substantial reduction in overall claim costs for many high-profile clients.
