NOW HIRING
Universal Design
Technical Student Assistant

The Universal Design Center (UDC) team is seeking technical student workers to assist in our efforts to promote accessibility and usability standards and best practices campus wide.

Essential Job Functions

- Perform accessibility testing and research technology solutions for web, applications, and documents
- Perform testing of institutional resources on different devices and cross-platform compatibility
- Create documentation of testing results, errors found, research findings on accessibility criteria
- Assist in developing, implementing and testing codes for web pages
- Assist team as needed

General Qualifications

- Current CSUN Student
- Commit to One academic year minimum
- Knowledge of HTML, CSS, and JavaScript
- Ability to analyze and interpret webpage source codes
- Team Player
- Strategic thinker and problem solver
- Able to work 10-20 hrs per week or as needed.

How to Apply:
Apply at: https://csun-csm.symplicity.com/students

- Log in to your Career Center Sunlink account or Register for a new account if needed.
- Enter Job ID: 64807 in the search box
- Apply and submit your resume

For more information, contact the Universal Design Center at 818-677-5898 or at universaldesigncenter@csun.edu

Visit our website at http://www.csun.edu/universaldesgincenter

Apply Today!