Department: Gender and Women’s Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Fall 2017 and/or Spring 2018

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Anticipated needs

Courses or Specialization
Gender & Women’s Studies 351: Intersections of Gender, Race, Class and Sexuality

The course examines historical and contemporary issues surrounding the diversity of women living in the U.S. Gender, race, socio-economic class and sexuality are presented as central theoretical concepts and as conditions of experience that affect all women and men, as well as being primary categories of social relations for us all.

Qualifications

1. Master’s Degree in relevant area required, Ph.D. preferred (in relevant field).
2. A background of working with or teaching about diverse communities preferred. Demonstrated commitment and ability to working with a diverse student population.
3. Teaching experience required.
4. Prior experience teaching the course (or equivalent) required.
5. Adhere to CSUN Writing Intensive (GW Designation WI).

Current Salary Range
$3,851-$5,769

Application Process: Applicants should forward a current resume and a letter which designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching, writing samples of their scholarly work, sample of course syllabi and student evaluations (if available), a letter of recommendation from one of their references, and whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The resume should include educational background, prior teaching experience, related professional experience, evidence of scholarship, and a list of three references (with contact information).

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:
Dr. Breny Mendoza, Chair
Gender & Women’s Studies Department
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff Street, Northridge, CA 91330-8251

Application Deadline: For Academic Year: 2017-2018 April 28, 2017

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

The person holding this position is considered a ‘mandated reporter’ under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: http://www.csun.edu/.

AA-6
Revised 01-16
Department: Gender & Women’s Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Fall 2017 and/or Spring 2018

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Anticipated needs

Courses or Specialization
Gender & Women’s Studies 300:
Women as Agents of Change

The course explores new definitions and options for women within the family, community, and society. Students study and report on women’s activism, resources and organizations for change within the local community as well as on the national and international scene.

Qualifications

1. Master’s Degree in relevant area required, Ph.D. preferred (in relevant field).
2. Background in the history of women’s movements in the U.S., or women’s activism domestic and internationally preferred.
3. Teaching experience required.
4. Experience teaching the course (or equivalent).
5. Demonstrated commitment and ability to working with a diverse student population.

Salary Range

Current Salary Range: $3,851-$5,769

Application Process: Applicants should forward a current resume and a letter which designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching, writing samples of their scholarly work, sample of course syllabi and student evaluations (if available), a letter of recommendation from one of their references, and whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The resume should include educational background, prior teaching experience, related professional experience, evidence of scholarship, and a list of three references (with contact information).

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Breny Mendoza, Chair
Gender & Women’s Studies Department
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff Street, Northridge, CA 91330-8251

Application Deadline: For Academic Year: 2017-2018 April 28, 2017

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: http://www.csun.edu/

AA-6
Revised 01-16
Department: Gender & Women’s Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Fall 2017 and/or Spring 2018

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Anticipated needs

Courses or Specialization
Gender & Women’s Studies 110: Women, Work, and the Family

Focuses on historical and contemporary relationship between home, community work and the marketplace within which women perform. Examines the differences in experience of work and family as these are shaped by race, class, gender and sexuality.

Qualifications
1. Master’s Degree in relevant area required, Ph.D. preferred (in relevant field).
2. Background in labor issues and the economy preferred.
3. Teaching experience required.
4. Experience teaching an Introductory Gender and Women’s Studies course (or equivalent).
5. Demonstrated commitment and ability to working with a diverse student population.

Current Salary Range
$3,851-$5,769

Application Process: Applicants should forward a current resume and a letter which designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching, writing samples of their scholarly work, sample of course syllabi and student evaluations (if available), a letter of recommendation from one of their references, and whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The resume should include educational background, prior teaching experience, related professional experience, evidence of scholarship, and a list of three references (with contact information).

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:
Dr. Breny Mendoza, Chair
Gender & Women’s Studies Department
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff Street, Northridge, CA 91330-8251

Application Deadline: For Academic Year: 2017-2018 April 28, 2017

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: http://www.csun.edu/

AA-6
Revised 01-16
Department: Gender & Women’s Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Fall 2017 and/or Spring 2018

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Anticipated needs

Courses or Specialization

Gender & Women’s Studies 100: Introduction to Gender & Women’s Studies.

An interdisciplinary study of women in American society, including such topics as social conditions, laws, symbols, values, communication, and power

Qualifications

1. Master’s Degree in relevant area required, Ph.D. preferred (in relevant field).
2. Teaching experience required. Background in feminist theories and discipline of Gender and Women Studies.
3. Demonstrated experience teaching an Introductory Gender and Women’s Studies course (or equivalent) preferred.
4. Demonstrated commitment and ability to working with a diverse student population.

Current Salary Range

$3,851-$5,769

Application Process: Applicants should forward a current resume and a letter which designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching, writing samples of their scholarly work, sample of course syllabi and student evaluations (if available), a letter of recommendation from one of their references, and whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The resume should include educational background, prior teaching experience, related professional experience, evidence of scholarship, and a list of three references (with contact information).

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Breny Mendoza, Chair
Gender & Women’s Studies Department
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff Street
Northridge, CA 91330-8251

Application Deadline: For Academic Year: 2017-2018 April 28, 2017

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

In compliance with the Annual Security Report & Fire Safety Report of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, California State University, Northridge has made crime-reporting statistics available on-line at http://www.csun.edu/sites/default/files/clsry-report.pdf; Print copies are available in the library and by request from the Department of Police Services and the Office of Faculty Affairs.

The person holding this position is considered a ‘mandated reporter’ under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077. As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: http://www.csun.edu/.

AA-6
Revised 01-16
Department: Gender and Women's Studies

Effective Date of Appointment: Fall 2017 and/or Spring 2018

All part-time faculty appointments are temporary and do not confer academic rank.

Anticipated needs

Courses or Specialization
Gender & Women's Studies 301: Feminist Theories

This required course for Gender and Women's Studies majors and minors concentrates on the multitude of feminist theories, from the early feminist theories to the more contemporary theories by a diversity of theorists, within the U.S. and globally.

Qualifications
1. Master's Degree in relevant area required, Ph.D. preferred (in relevant field).
2. A background of working with or teaching about diverse communities preferred. Demonstrated commitment and ability to working with a diverse student population.
3. Teaching experience required.
4. Prior experience teaching the course (or equivalent) required.
5. Adhere to CSUN Writing Intensive (GW Designation WI).

Current Salary Range
$3,851-$5,769

Application Process: Applicants should forward a current resume and a letter which designates specific courses or areas they are interested in teaching, writing samples of their scholarly work, sample of course syllabi and student evaluations (if available), a letter of recommendation from one of their references, and whenever possible, times available for teaching assignments. The resume should include educational background, prior teaching experience, related professional experience, evidence of scholarship, and a list of three references (with contact information).

Inquiries and applications should be addressed to:
Dr. Breny Mendoza, Chair
Gender & Women’s Studies Department
California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff Street, Northridge, CA 91330-8251

Application Deadline: For Academic Year: 2017-2018 April 28, 2017

Final determination of part-time teaching assignments is contingent upon student enrollment figures and funding.

General Information:

The person holding this position is considered a 'mandated reporter' under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Applicants who wish to request accommodations for a disability may contact the Office of Equity and Diversity, (818) 677-2077.

As an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer, CSUN strives to create a community in which a diverse population can work, teach and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights of each individual. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, genetic information, medical information, marital status, or veteran status. For more information about the University, check our website: http://www.csun.edu/

AA-6
Revised 01-16