

TEENAGE DRAMA WORKSHOP

Dear Camp Director,

The Teenage Drama Workshop (TADW), entering its 58th year at California State University, Northridge, invites your group to attend this summer's Plays for Youth.

As you plan your calendar of events for the upcoming summer, you will not want to miss our special offering for groups: two wonderful shows — Disney's The Little Mermaid and Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. Our productions usually run about 70 minutes. Many camps bring a sack lunch, attend the 11am matinee, and then have a picnic lunch after the performance. This is a wonderful opportunity for young audiences to see plays performed by teenagers.

We have several 11 am matinees planned to serve your group's schedule:

Disney's The Little Mermaid and Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

Wednesday,	July 15 (Charlie and the Chocolate Factory only)
Friday,	July 17
Wednesday,	July 22
Thursday,	July 23
Friday,	July 24

We have a special discount for your group. Our group rate ticket is $10.00 per person (for a ticket order of 10 or more). To reserve your tickets, fill out the attached invoice and return it to us by March 1st. We will fill the orders as we receive them. Please be advised that most shows sell out!

Please feel free to contact me at (818) 677-5811. You may also speak with TADW Managing Director, Melissa Filbeck at (818) 913-1887 or Karen at (818) 658-0022 if you have any questions.

Email – tadw@csun.edu

We look forward to hearing from you and entertaining your group in 2015.
