

Figure 5.1 Resting, or membrane potential. Sodium (Na^+) ions are in high concentration outside the membrane, while potassium (K^+) ions and organic anions (A^-) are in high concentration inside the membrane. The potential across the membrane is about -70 millivolts.