An EASY Assignment

| * Lying | is permitted on #1 and #2.                                     |                                |
|---------|--|--------------------------------|
| 1.*     | Estimate your height.  |                                |
|         | Measure your height.   |                                |
| 2.*     | Estimate your weight.  |                                |
|         | Measure your weight.   |                                |
| 3.      | Estimate the dimensions of your Math 310 textbook.             |                                |
|         | Measure them.  |                                |
| 4.      | Find something circular. (Yes, you can find something: Wasteba | asket, dish, soup pot          |
|         | Estimate its diameter (distance straight across the center).   |                                |
|         | Estimate its circumference (distance all the way around).      |                                |
|         | Measure the diameter.  |                                |
|         | Measure the circumference.                                     |                                |
| 5.      | Measure your bedroom.  |                                |
|         | How much would it cost you to replace your floor with new mate | erial at $40 <sub>/ yd²</sub> |