

Ideas for the First Day of Class

The University of Oklahoma's Instructional Development Program's webpage: "Ideas on Teaching The First Day of Class: What Can/Should We Do?" offers nine excellent suggestions for creating a healthy, effective learning environment in the classroom from the start.

Here is the URL, which the University of Oklahoma has graciously agreed to let me disseminate:

If you would like to discuss your plans for your first day of class with me, please feel free to contact me. Thank you!

Best wishes for a great first day of class,
