UNABLE TO PRE-REGISTER FOR A WORKSHOP AND BEEN PROCESSED.

FOOD SERVICES

NOTE:

METHODOLOGY OF PAYMENT

PLEASE NOTE: The University is not responsible for mail that is undelivered or lost.

ONLINE registration: Call The Tseng College client services office at 1-818-677-2804 during office hours. Fax: 818-677-2614.

WALK-IN registration: Visit the Tseng College client services office on the CSUN campus, room 110 in the Student Services building. Office hours for walk-in registration are listed online at http://www.csun.edu/ltg.html.

METHODS OF PAYMENT

Acceptable methods of payment are credit card (Visa or Mastercard), check (mail-in registration) or cash (in person registration) and electronic check.

NOTE: Payment is due upon registration.

Since these workshops fill quickly, early registration is highly recommendable. If you are unable to pre-register for a workshop and the workshop is not filled, you may still be able to show up at the door and register. However, the availability of space cannot be guaranteed and registration and payment have been processed.

FOOD SERVICES

Brown bag lunch is recommended, as there are food services available on campus during the workshops. Local restaurants also offer a selection.

CANCELED CLASSES

Every effort will be made to notify the student of a canceled class. Four days prior to the class, the reduced fee will be refunded, but no refund will be issued if three days or less prior to the class.

Tuition can be refunded if a student requests it by calling the Tseng College client services at 1-818-677-2804 during work hours the day before the seminar begins. The amount paid for the seminar in question will be automatically credited to the participant’s CSUN account or may be applied to an alternate class.

There are no withdrawals, refunds or credits granted after the Tseng College work hours the day before the seminar begins. Non-attendance, withdrawal or dropping out does not constitute a financial withdrawal. Refunds withdraw if not permitted.

PERMIT REQUIREMENTS

Daily Parking Permits cost $10.00 and may be purchased at the Information Booth, located on Prairie Street off Darby or Information Booth, located on 100 West on Detmer Drive.

Parking permits must be visible including serial number and security hologram, while parked at CSUN. The entire permit must be visible including serial number and security hologram, while parked at CSUN. Parking permits may be purchased from a parking official located at the Information Booth or from any parking permit machine located at the entrance of the parking structures assigned to you.

By law, State of California law requires that your license plate number, driver’s name, and vehicle make and model must be clearly and visibly visible at State of California law.

SPECIAL NEEDS REQUESTS

The Workshops Program strives to meet the special needs of continuing education attendees. Please contact the Center on Disabilities at 818-677-2157 or visit http://www.csun.edu/enter/disability.html for more information on disabilities at the Center.

Since the workshops fill quickly, early registration is highly recommended.

IS IT A REAL "How-To" day? Also covered:

5 stages of child therapy;
3 universal treatment goals;
5 stages of child therapy;
"Ro" and "sc" to vital for a child’s emotional well-being.

POSTER: ROBERT WALKER, LA MT
LA MT maintained a full-time private practice in Woodland Hills, CA since 1987, where his specialties include child therapy and in helping behaviorally oriented adults. He is the past president of the Los Angeles chapter of the California Association for Play Therapy, and has been a topical expert in Child Magazine, Good Housekeeping, and the Los Angeles Times. Also a registered State of California percent, knowledge of the creative process to his therapeutic work, helping people find more satisfying lives through the arts. He is the co-founder of the Alliance for Creative Psychotherapy and can generally be found with paint on his hands. Go online to see more at http://www.RobertWalkerLA.com.

http://www.makingchildtherapywork.com

Statement of Nondiscrimination and Disability Services Information: CSUN does not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, national origin, age, religion, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, sexual harassment, or any other basis prohibited by federal, state, or local law. CSUN is an equal-opportunity employer and educator. Reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities are available. Contact the Center on Disabilities at 818-677-2157 or visit http://www.csun.edu/disability.html.

No Declarations, No Housing Students: Please contact the National Center for Education Rights at NCDER.com or call 1-800-819-2577.

MAKING CHILD THERAPY WORK!

Sunday, March 27 (9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.)
Room# Educ. 1117 | BBS Approved 4 CEHs
XEDU 999 - 2113-9132

Through case examples and photographic slides, participants will learn how to use play as the primary vehicle, create a healing environment, understand initial impressions, analyze transparency patterns, identity transformational themes in the sandbox journey, and appreciate the importance of symbolic communication in therapy.

Presenter: RIE ROGERS MITCHELL, Ph.D., ARCP is a registered psychologist and professor of educational psychology and counseling at CSUN. She is a registered play therapist and supervisor (RPT-S), a certified sandbox therapist and teacher (CSST-T), and past-president of the International Society of Sandplay Therapy, and former president of Sandplay Therapists of America. Rie is co-author of Sandplay: Past, Present, and Future (Routledge, 1994) and Supervision of Sandplay Therapy (Routledge, 2007) with Riehl Pozna. Rie teaches internationally and has published numerous book chapters and journal articles on sandplay, play therapy, and other professional areas.

INTRODUCTION TO SANDPLAY

Sunday, March 27 (1:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.)
Room# Educ. 1117 | BBS Approved 4 CEHs
XEDU 999 - 2113-9132

Through case examples and photographic slides, participants will learn how to use play as the primary vehicle, create a healing environment, understand initial impressions, analyze transparency patterns, identity transformational themes in the sandbox journey, and appreciate the importance of symbolic communication in therapy.

Presenter: RIE ROGERS MITCHELL, Ph.D., ARCP is a registered psychologist and professor of educational psychology and counseling at CSUN. She is a registered play therapist and supervisor (RPT-S), a certified sandbox therapist and teacher (CSST-T), and past-president of the International Society of Sandplay Therapy, and former president of Sandplay Therapists of America. Rie is co-author of Sandplay: Past, Present, and Future (Routledge, 1994) and Supervision of Sandplay Therapy (Routledge, 2007) with Riehl Pozna. Rie teaches internationally and has published numerous book chapters and journal articles on sandplay, play therapy, and other professional areas.

LICENSING EDUCATION IS APPROVED BY THE BOARD OF RESEARCH BEHAVIORAL SCIENCE

The program is open to professionals and advanced students who have already received their general public. We provide valuable quality continuing education and training to the professional community of licensed MFTs, LCSWs, Psychologists. Insure, license and other mental health professionals. We are an approved provider of 100 units for mandatory continuing education for MFTs and 100 units for psychologists mandated by the Board of Behavioral Sciences. Continuing educators who complete all the workshops and attend some mandatory continuing education will receive the maximum number of contact hours for which they have registered.
MINDFULNESS, PSYCHOTHERAPY AND THE CONTINUING PATH
Saturday, September 4 | 9:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.
Room Edul. 1177 | BBS Approved | 4 CEHs

This experiential and didactic workshop shares on Eastern & Western Contemplative Perspectives as well as Mind-Body-Mind Therapy. Topics include: (1) How Mindfulness and Contemplative methods and are and essential clinical comfort in a client. (2) The healing relationship as “Deep Practice” / 9:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. with meditations, self-reflection, treatment and personal aspects. (3) How to integrate mindfulness with systemic therapy, treatment and contemplative expertise.

Preceptors: JEROME J. FRONT, MFT is a psychotherapist, lecturer, and a clinical and educational leader in the process of internalizing mindfulness. Robin James is a faculty member at the Graduate School of Counseling Psychology at Pepperdine University, and is also an assistant professor in the Counseling Psychology and Marriage Counseling at Cornerstone. The Los Angeles Times. Also an artist, Robin and has been a quoted expert in Child Magazine, Good Housekeeping, and the Los Angeles Times. Robin is a graduate of CSUN and is in private practice in Woodland Hills, CA since 1985. She is a full-time private practice in Woodland Hills, CA. She is a full-time private practice in Woodland Hills, CA. She is also a private practice in Woodland Hills, CA. She is also a private practice in Woodland Hills, CA.

Major Topic Covered:
(1) How Mindfulness and Contemplative methods and courses can assist in developing clinical quality in the Therapy / Therapist as the “Instrument of the Healing Process”.
(2) The ways in which systemic meditative approaches can guide us to new levels of self-awareness and healing. How to heal your mind and how it impacts your body? How we heal is to learn to let go of our thoughts and emotions and to find peace.

Preceptors: JEROME J. FRONT, MFT is a psychotherapist, lecturer, and a clinical and educational leader in the process of internalizing mindfulness. Robin James is a faculty member at the Graduate School of Counseling Psychology at Pepperdine University, and is also an assistant professor in the Counseling Psychology and Marriage Counseling at Cornerstone. The Los Angeles Times. Also an artist, Robin and has been a quoted expert in Child Magazine, Good Housekeeping, and the Los Angeles Times. Robin is a graduate of CSUN and is in private practice in Woodland Hills, CA since 1985. She is a full-time private practice in Woodland Hills, CA. She is a full-time private practice in Woodland Hills, CA. She is also a private practice in Woodland Hills, CA. She is also a private practice in Woodland Hills, CA.

Major Topic Covered:
(1) How Mindfulness and Contemplative methods and courses can assist in developing clinical quality in the Therapy / Therapist as the “Instrument of the Healing Process”.
(2) The ways in which systemic meditative approaches can guide us to new levels of self-awareness and healing. How to heal your mind and how it impacts your body? How we heal is to learn to let go of our thoughts and emotions and to find peace.

Preceptors: JEROME J. FRONT, MFT is a psychotherapist, lecturer, and a clinical and educational leader in the process of internalizing mindfulness. Robin James is a faculty member at the Graduate School of Counseling Psychology at Pepperdine University, and is also an assistant professor in the Counseling Psychology and Marriage Counseling at Cornerstone. The Los Angeles Times. Also an artist, Robin and has been a quoted expert in Child Magazine, Good Housekeeping, and the Los Angeles Times. Robin is a graduate of CSUN and is in private practice in Woodland Hills, CA since 1985. She is a full-time private practice in Woodland Hills, CA. She is a full-time private practice in Woodland Hills, CA. She is also a private practice in Woodland Hills, CA. She is also a private practice in Woodland Hills, CA.

Major Topic Covered:
(1) How Mindfulness and Contemplative methods and courses can assist in developing clinical quality in the Therapy / Therapist as the “Instrument of the Healing Process”.
(2) The ways in which systemic meditative approaches can guide us to new levels of self-awareness and healing. How to heal your mind and how it impacts your body? How we heal is to learn to let go of our thoughts and emotions and to find peace.

Preceptors: JEROME J. FRONT, MFT is a psychotherapist, lecturer, and a clinical and educational leader in the process of internalizing mindfulness. Robin James is a faculty member at the Graduate School of Counseling Psychology at Pepperdine University, and is also an assistant professor in the Counseling Psychology and Marriage Counseling at Cornerstone. The Los Angeles Times. Also an artist, Robin and has been a quoted expert in Child Magazine, Good Housekeeping, and the Los Angeles Times. Robin is a graduate of CSUN and is in private practice in Woodland Hills, CA since 1985. She is a full-time private practice in Woodland Hills, CA. She is a full-time private practice in Woodland Hills, CA. She is also a private practice in Woodland Hills, CA. She is also a private practice in Woodland Hills, CA.

Major Topic Covered:
(1) How Mindfulness and Contemplative methods and courses can assist in developing clinical quality in the Therapy / Therapist as the “Instrument of the Healing Process”.
(2) The ways in which systemic meditative approaches can guide us to new levels of self-awareness and healing. How to heal your mind and how it impacts your body? How we heal is to learn to let go of our thoughts and emotions and to find peace.

Preceptors: JEROME J. FRONT, MFT is a psychotherapist, lecturer, and a clinical and educational leader in the process of internalizing mindfulness. Robin James is a faculty member at the Graduate School of Counseling Psychology at Pepperdine University, and is also an assistant professor in the Counseling Psychology and Marriage Counseling at Cornerstone. The Los Angeles Times. Also an artist, Robin and has been a quoted expert in Child Magazine, Good Housekeeping, and the Los Angeles Times. Robin is a graduate of CSUN and is in private practice in Woodland Hills, CA since 1985. She is a full-time private practice in Woodland Hills, CA. She is a full-time private practice in Woodland Hills, CA. She is also a private practice in Woodland Hills, CA. She is also a private practice in Woodland Hills, CA.

Major Topic Covered:
(1) How Mindfulness and Contemplative methods and courses can assist in developing clinical quality in the Therapy / Therapist as the “Instrument of the Healing Process”.
(2) The ways in which systemic meditative approaches can guide us to new levels of self-awareness and healing. How to heal your mind and how it impacts your body? How we heal is to learn to let go of our thoughts and emotions and to find peace.